My dear Mr. Bowker:

Your letter of June twenty-third has been received and I want to thank you for your courtesy in sending the President a copy of your book.

With regard to your request, I am sorry to disappoint you. Under a policy of long standing it is not possible for this office to express any opinion as to the merits of the many, many literary compositions that are received daily.

Very sincerely yours,

GRACE G. TULLY

His EXCELLENCY --

Franklin Delano Roosevelt Esquire .

President of the United States of Amerixa.

White House - Washington . D.C.

Dear President .-- Under separate cover I have the honor to mail you the first copy of my new book BIZZY* QUIZZY THE GREAT . I believe you will like these stories of Imagination and Ingenuity . I particularly draw your attention to "THE CALIFORNIA RUBY" and "IN THE YEAR TWO THOUSAND" for the BIG IDEA involved . After you have read this book I shall feel doubly honored if you would be so kind as to send me a letter signed by you opining what you think of the book .

You will notice that the book begins with the word SUNSHINE on the Babe Ruth Photo and ends with the same word in the SALUTATION. AS Gandhi is synonimous with PEACE I have a double header there.

Yours Obediently and Respectfully -

William Rushton Bowker .

Pres. Roosevelt's Office
Washington, D. C.

My Dear Pres. Roosevelt:

I am herewith inclosing two letters which I have recently received from the War Department.

The writer is 30 years old and extremely successful; employs a large force of people, spends all his time at business, and cannot understand why he should be turned down from serving his country for a very minor physical defect which bothers him not at all.

The writer is a photographic expert, versed in management, purchasing, and dark room experience. His 1941 income tax has been far beyond what the average 30 year old pays.

My only reason in writing to you is that I am most anxious to serve my country in any capacity. Trusting to be favored with an early response, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
CONTINENTAL GALLERIES

My dear Mr. President,

This marvelous little book came to my attention two years ago, and I have re-read it many times. I have always wished it could be "drunk up" by everyone in the world.

The desire to share it is so strong it is hard not to lose one's sense of reserve. As I read it this morning I had such a deep wish to send it to you that I am obeying that impulse. After all, why not?

BOLETIN DE EDUCACION
Organ of the Department of Public Education

San José, Costa Rica

May 13, 1942

Mr. Stephen Early,
President Roosevelt's Secretary,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Early:

It is with great honor and pleasure that I write to you again to offer you my most respectful greetings and to ask you to let me know whether you have received the six issues of the BOLETIN DE EDUCACION which I have been sending periodically, as well as my letter, addressed to you, dated September 13 last, accompanied by the first number of the Bulletin and an album commemorating the inauguration of the University of Costa Rica.

In the said letter I asked you, Mr. Early, to present to President Roosevelt that Bulletin, on page twelve of which there is a complimentary message of great meaning for President Roosevelt. I also asked of you the favor of obtaining a picture of the President for the office of the BOLETIN DE EDUCACION with Mr. Roosevelt's signature. As nothing has been heard of the arrival of the first Bulletin and of the albums, I request you to tell me something about the matter and whether it is possible to obtain Mr. Roosevelt's photograph for the Bulletin's office.

The BOLETIN DE EDUCACION is an official organ of the Department of Public Education and its purpose is to effect a deeply Pan American, cultural and democratic program in the service of the Americas and for that reason I believe that Mr. Roosevelt will not refuse to honor the Bulletin with a photograph and an autograph signature.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mayor Burgin:

Many thanks for your thoughtful letter of July fifteenth. I very much appreciate your action in sending a picture of the design for a United Nations Victory Flag adopted at a meeting called by Mr. Delcevare King.

While your action in making this picture and the proposal for a United Nations Victory Flag available to the President is deeply appreciated, I regret to advise you that the President cannot make a comment. So many meritorious proposals are brought to the President's attention from time to time that it would be quite impossible for him either to commend or comment in any way on their merits. As he has not deviated from this course I am sure you will appreciate the difficulty of making an exception in this instance.

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Stephen T. Early
Secretary to the President
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Early:

Believing that the most advisable way for me to transmit a message to the President would be through a personal communication to you, I am taking the liberty of writing this letter concerning something about which we in Quincy, Massachusetts (the birthplace of Presidents John Adams and John Quincy Adams) have a particular interest.

A short time ago, a meeting of prominent citizens was called at the invitation of Mr. Delcevare King, Quincy banker and philanthropist, for the purpose of viewing several suggested designs for a "United Nations Victory Flag." At this meeting, one was selected and adopted as being worthy of receiving national recognition.

Briefly, as explained by Mr. King, the idea of the United Nations Victory Flag is as follows:-

President Roosevelt has urged a wider display of the Flag. We believe that the Stars and Stripes is supreme and where that will be flown, it is best. But flying the American Flag is often a tough job. It must be raised and lowered at proper times; it must not fly in the rain, and so forth. Mr. King's idea was to have a flag symbolizing the cause of the United Nations, yet a flag that could be flown day and night and in fair weather and foul. He designed several flags, all of which were draped about with a large white circle superimposed and a heavy blue "V" upon the circle. The red would stand for the blood of sacrifice, the white for high ideals and the four Freedoms, and the blue for hope and happiness. Use of the circle motif would symbolize the unity of the 28 nations that make up the United Nations.

Because this City "Where American Independence Began" has had such an interesting history, we felt that it would be appropriate to fly the United Nations Victory Flag for the first time on the morning of July 4th at the birthplace of John Adams on Franklin Street, Quincy. There was a special significance in this since John Adams died on July 4, 1826, on the 50th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. This was done and at a later date we hope to consecrate this flag at the First Parish Unitarian Church where the remains of John Adams and John Quincy Adams and their wives now repose. Following this we would like to present the original flag to President Roosevelt.

Obviously if the idea has any merit, we would like to get widespread publicity to put it over and of course the idea should be called to the President's attention so that he might give an informal approval of its use. Let me say right here, that there is no thought whatsoever of commercializing this flag in any way, shape or manner and there is no member of the Committee who has any desire or interest in furthering the sale of these flags or to capitalize in any manner through such sales. Mr. King is inquiring about copyrighting the flag so that it could be protected from exploitation.

Under separate cover I am sending you a picture showing the United Nations Victory Flag being flown under the Stars and Stripes. This flag would in no sense take the place of the American Flag but might well be flown underneath it or might be flown on such flag poles that do not regularly have the Stars and Stripes flown therefrom because of the inability of those in charge of the flag pole to make arrangements for the flag to be taken in each night at sunset and in the event of rain. I should be very much pleased if you would call this matter to the attention of the President and inquire as to whether or not the contribution of a patriotic group of Quincy citizens in creating this flag might receive his approval.

We in Quincy who serve on this committee have been particularly interested to see all of the magazines for this month using the American Flag. This has been a fine supplement to the appeal for a larger use of the flag. We feel further that it makes a particularly fortunate time to appeal to the President for the use of a United Nations Victory Flag - a Flag designed not to lessen the use of the Stars and Stripes but to supplement it - to fly night and day, rain and shine, where, as in most instances, there is no "Stars and Stripes" flying from the flagpoles.

We will await with interest your reaction to the idea and hope that perhaps you might show the President our suggestion and get his views as to whether or not he would be willing to approve of this flag before it is generally put into use.

Very truly yours,

Thomas S. Burgin

Dear Grace:

Mr. J. Bradley of Constance, Saskatchewan, Canada, has asked me to pass on these two small paper weights, which are made of natural coloured stones found near Rockglen in Saskatchewan.

He tells me that he gets considerable personal pleasure in finding these stones and making them into ornamental and useful gifts for presentation, as well as an interesting hobby.

He asked that the President be good enough to accept them, believing that Mr. Roosevelt will appreciate the natural beauty of this small token of his regard and let him have the pleasure of making the gift.

I recognize this method of making the gift is not according to hoyle, but perhaps I may be forgiven and a letter written to Mr. Bradley thanking him.

Mr. J. Bradley of Constance, Saskatchewan, Canada, has asked me to pass on these two small paper weights, which are made of natural coloured stones found near Rockglen in Saskatchewan.

He tells me that he gets considerable personal pleasure in finding these stones and making them into ornamental and useful gifts for presentation, as well as an interesting hobby.

He asked that the President be good enough to accept them, believing that Mr. Roosevelt will appreciate the natural beauty of this small token of his regard and let him have the pleasure of making the gift.

I recognize this method of making the gift is not according to hoyle, but perhaps I may be forgiven and a letter written to Mr. Bradley thanking him.

Wrote to the President sending to him, on behalf of the Army in India, presentation copy of the account of the achievements of the first two divisions sent abroad by India during this war. --- The President replied July 30, 1942, thanking for the copy of THE TIGER STRIKES. Stating hopes much that this amazing story of General Wavell's first two Indian Division can be widely circulated, for it represents brilliant and thoroughly effective fighting during first two years of the war which few people -- at least in America -- are familiar with. President expressed the hope that the General and Pres. can meet one of these days.

July 27, 1942.

Writes the President asking him to accept membership -- honoris causa -- in the Baker Street Irregulars. Says this band includes Chris Morley and Rex Stout and Elmer Davis. Says they are dedicated to the task of honoring and keeping green the memory of Sherlock Holmes.----Attached is memo. to Mr. Hassett, Aug. 5th, from Miss Tully saying the President said to tell Mr. Smith he would be delighted to accept honorary membership. Miss Tully gave him a further message to tell Mr. Smith.---The President, Aug. 5th, replied to Mr. Smith's letter saying he should be delighted to accept membership -- honoris causa -- in the Baker Street Irregulars. Said he is glad to have a part of any movement whose purpose is to keep green the memory of Sherlock Holmes. The President said that now that he belongs to Baker Street Irregulars he cannot restrain the impulse to tell Mr. Smith that since he had had to give up cruising on the POTOMAC he sometimes go off the record on Sundays to an undisclosed retreat and in that spot the group of little cabins which shelter the Secret Service men is known as Baker Street. (Mr. Smith asked if the President would be willing to accept a copy of the latest of the score of more of books that have been written about Sherlock Holmes. The President made no reference to this offer of the book in his letter.)
