Dear Mrs Tully

A package for the President and addressed to you was shipped via parcel post registered from Wharton New Jersey post office today.

Same should reach you in the course of a few days. Now that Hon Winston Churchill has arrived in Washington for a conference, kindly hold package in your possession until conference is over, and present same to our President later.

It would not be appropriate act

to present same at this time while he is so occupied with international problems.
When the conference is over do kindly give package to him.
I am hoping that he will acknowledge receipt of it at a future date personally himself
I extend to you my best wishes for a very Merry Christmas and a happy new Year
Sincerely
Dr Leon J Coniglio

Dear Miss Tully

On or about Wednesday December 24th you will receive a small parcel addressed to you and is for our dear President.

Upon receipt of it kindly present same to him.

In the package he will find a photo of his dear mother. My photographer spent many days on it. His dear mother gave to me the original in 1930. Along with the photo there is another gift he can use daily in the performance of his duties.

It has been my custom every year at this time for 20 years of sending some small gift. I always sent a gift to her dear mother no finer lady ever lived she was dear to us all upon receipt of the photo our dear friend the President will pause for a moment and pay reverence to his dear mother, and recall to memory the reminiscences of a cherished past.

Every year at the end of each year the President has always favored me with a line All I ask of him is one line stating that he is well. Failure to do so would hurt me.
I am deeply appreciative of the fact that he is busy but I am confident that he can write just one line from his pen some evening at the close of day My folks who are 82 years of age would be pleased to know that he is well I campaigned for him and Governor Cox of Dayton Ohio in 1920, again in 1932, 1936 and 1940. I served in the world war and since have devoted my time to medical work
I extend to you my best wishes for a very merry Christmas and a happy and a prosperous new year
With respect and courtesy
Sincerely
Dr Louis J. Concialdi

Dear Miss Tully.

Within the course of a few days you will receive a package addressed to the President upon receipt of it kindly present same to him.

For many years Miss Marguerite LeHand took care of my mail. In her absence kindly take care same for me. I deeply appreciate your kindness and courtesy.

For 20 years or more I have made it a duty to send some small gift to our esteemed friend. This year I am sending a photo of his dear mother whom he highly esteemed. Same he can place on his desk

and it will comfort him in these trying days.
His mother gave me one of her photographs in 1930 and from the original my photographer made a small one made
Nothing could be more appropriate to send.
All I ask from him
is a word from his own pen stating that he is well.

He has done so in these many years and I am confident that he will do so again
upon the close of day sometime I am confident that he will write a line
I ask no other favor
I served in the world war am serving my county and community many hours a day seven days per week and am ayem
ready to serve God
and country
God bless you and the president Thanking you very sincerely

EMBASSY OF CUBA
WASHINGTON, D.C.

1347

December 21, 1941

Excellency:

The children who are students of the Centro Superior Tecnologico at Ceiba del Agua, Cuba, and who consist of the orphaned children of laborers, clerks or members of the Armed Forces of the Republic who died while at work or in service or from an illness contracted as a result thereof, have - with great good will and artistry - made a leather table cover* worked with the portrait of the mother of the enlightened President of the United States of America, His Excellency Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The said cover was sent to this Embassy with the request that it be forwarded to its high destination.

I have the honor to transmit the said cover to Your Excellency with the request that you will be good enough to forward to His Excellency the President this gift made to him by the pupils of the aforementioned Centro Superior Technologico.

I renew (etc.)
