My dear Mr. Foote:

The President has read with a great deal of interest all that you say in your letter of September eighth. He is delighted to have that delicious fresh Maryland fruit and thanks you very much indeed for your thoughtfulness in presenting it to him. He asks me to say that he will heartily enjoy it.

I have pleasure in extending the President's cordial good wishes to you.

Very sincerely yours,

Grace G. Tully

Dear Mr. President:

Ever since I saw you apparently enjoying shipped-in strawberries at a luncheon in March several years ago, I have wanted you to have some good Seventh-day Adventist, Maryland, tree- and vine-ripened fresh fruit. Here it is, at last--just picked this morning. I hope you will find that it compares fairly well with New York fruit.

The grapes are of the best colors in the world--red, white, and blue--and of seven kinds. The pears are Lincoln and Seckel; the plums, Green Gage; the tomatoes, "Sugar."

And if you will just wait around here until next June, I intend to bring you the best strawberries raised in Maryland--or anywhere else!

Respectfully yours,

B. P. Foote

"If men rendered me some return of love, I should esteem little all I have done for them"

Mother Elizabeth Seton was born in New York city in 1774. She grew up as Elizabeth Ann Bayley. In 1794, she became the wife of William M. Seton. As an Episcopalian, Mrs. Seton founded the Society for Relief of Poor Widows With Small Children, one of the first charitable organizations in New York. After her husband's death in 1803, Mrs. Seton was received into the Church in 1805, founded the Sisters of Charity in the U. S. A. in 1809, and served as first superior of the community until her death in 1821.

Mother Seton was one of the many famous converts from Episcopalianism. The controversy over the consecration of the first Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States by Bishops of the Episcopal Church in Scotland, after England had refused him consecration following the Revolution, disturbed Mrs. Seton and started her on the road to Rome.

Preliminary steps have been taken toward the presentation of her cause for beatification. The anniversary of her birth is Aug. 28. —(Illustration reproduced from The C.S.S.S., by Father William L. Hayward.

MARGARET FREEMAN

Wheels niece Jeannine Marie Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wheeler, 706 E. Second St.

Although crippled since birth by an infirmity which precluded her employment in war plants, Margaret Elizabeth Freeman, 36, of 50 Monroe St. is making Rosaries for Catholic men in the services.

Last week she completed her 50th Rosary and took it to SS. Peter & Paul's Church to be blessed. Like the rest, it will be worn or carried by some Elmiran in a battle zone.

Margaret has been an active communicant of SS. Peter & Paul's for 18 years. It was her devotion to the church and its work that led her, she says, toward making the Rosaries. Her brother, Sgt. Millard Freeman, is an engineer-gunner with a flying crew in Corsica.

The Rosaries she prepares have a plastic cross and braided cord. She ties the knots and dyes the cording to match the uniforms of the men.

THE PROMISES OF OUR LORD to
SAINT MARGARET MARY

I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life.

I will establish peace in their families.

I will console them in all their difficulties.

I will be their assured refuge in life and more especially at death.

I will pour out abundant benedictions on all their undertakings.

Sinners will find in My Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.

Tepid souls shall become fervent.

Fervent souls shall advance rapidly to a great perfection.

I will bless the houses in which the image of My Sacred Heart will be exposed and honored.

I will give to priests the power of moving the most hardened hearts.

Persons who propagate this devotion shall have their names inscribed in My Heart, and they shall never be effaced from it.

I promise thee, in the exceeding mercy of My Heart, that Its all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive Communion on the first Friday of nine consecutive months the grace of Final Perseverance; they shall not die under My displeasure nor without receiving the Sacraments; My Divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last hour.

"A study on safety and efficiency conducted last November revealed that a large percentage of all injuries at the plant occurred while mechanics were climbing in and out of planes," said Koerner. "So we decided to do something about it."

The number of accidents declined, he said, after ladder rungs and standing areas were painted a conspicuous color to catch the eye of hurrying workers.

One success led to additional experiment. Step No. 2 was the application of red paint to electric switches and other controls, which promptly eliminated groping and thus saved valuable seconds.

A full program of "color aids" then was undertaken in the machine shops, where work is done on NWA commercial planes.

"The dull gray of most machinery has a tendency to absorb and kill natural color," Koerner explained, "so we adopted colors which would reflect this light, and the entire shops became brighter.

"We noticed that eye fatigue and general strain lessened when we eliminated the monotony of that single gray color which acted almost as a camouflage against the dull background of the floors and walls."

He said that the dressed-up appearance of the shop acquired through its gay colors developed a tendency in the workers to maintain cleanliness through the whole working area.

NWA now is planning similar painting throughout its system.

Dear friend:

Enclosed please find two pairs of Rosary beads and two pictures of my daughter, Margaret. Would you please see that General Dwight Eisenhower receives one picture and one Rosary and the other is for you. Our boys have them all over. Her own idea, because they can be put right in their laundry and be sanitary. My own son is an engineer gunner over at Corsica, as you will see reading with picture. We want to thank you for everything. You have been so kind to all of the people.

Hope I am not bothering you too much. Margaret Elizabeth Freeman is my daughter's name and she cannot write. She has tried, but she has a very hard time using pen or pencil - Central Paralytic - injured at birth. She can walk, but she is still an invalid in her neck, very religious, receives communion every morning.

Hope you will feel good and have all of the Luck in the world. Thanks again for everything.
