Dear President:

We all are happy over the election that you won, but we knew you were going to win all of the time.

I sent a letter to you two years ago telling you that you were going to win the election.

The Republicans were throwing away to many sunflowers the more they threw out the stronger the donkey got.

I can see that the people are with you a 100%.

I also hope you put in a new NRA.

So I wish to extend my Christmas Greetings by sending you a box of six hand made hankerchiefs as I can't forget a man as good as you are.

Yours sincerely

HITLER NAMES ARMY EXPERT HIS ENVOY TO SPANISH REBELS

BERLIN, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Gen. Wilhelm Faupel, who for 12 years played a prominent rôle in the reorganization of the Argentine and Peruvian armies, was selected by Reichsfuehrer Hitler today as his chargé d'affaires to the Spanish Fascist régime. Germany and Italy recognized the Fascist régime this week.

Gen Faupel once was an instructor in the Argentine war academy and, for nine years, was military advisor to Jose Francisco Uriburu, once provisional president of Argentina.

Later he was inspector general of the Peruvian army. During the world war he was on the Von Hindenburg general staf.

are the shock troops of the government. They have new guns and apparently are plentifully supplied with ammunition.

Madrid Now Has Air Force.

The greatest encouragement was the appearance of a thoroughly equipped air force with the latest type of scout machines and good bombers. Hopes were higher than ever that Madrid would repeat bolshevist Petrograd's feat, when in 1919 it frustrated the assault of Gen. Yudenitch. Gen. Francisco Franco, the Spanish rebel leader, has shown himself to be a cautious strategist and may have a surprise in store.

Refugees from the surrounding villages and the outlying quarters of Madrid have been pouring into the center of the capital. These pitiful groups trudged along with their few possessions tied in a few sacks or bundles.

One family, the proud possessors of him. The eldest boy, aged 17, now shoulders the burden of the family.

Other cellars of the same house received occupants when three families with eight children, relatives of the concierge, came from the fringes of Madrid which shells had rendered uninhabitable.

During an airplane battle today an armor-piercing machine gun bullet penetrated the roof of the apartment and embedded itself in the flooring. The tenants, with twin daughters aged 4 months, are now occupying one of the lower apartments.

The living quarters of the poorer classes usually are so inadequate and miserable they spend most of their time in the streets. The moment the sun shines they all come out like lizards to bask in its warmth. In the most fashionable streets of Madrid such families may now be seen leaving palatial quarters to do the same, the mother seated in a low chair, the children playing in the dirt, while the family wash hangs on lines stretched along trees on the promenades.

Serbian Citizen Reported Executed in Spanish City

PARIS, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The Austrian legation announced today that a citizen of Jugo-Slavia, William Wakonigg, unofficial representative of Austrian interest at Bilbao, Spain, was condemned by a court martial there and executed. A legation spokesman said Wakonigg was not a consul, but had aided Austrian refugees and conducted their affairs at Bilboa during the revolt. He said he did not know whether Austria would protest to the Spanish government.

FIND TWO SKULLS NEAR PEIPING; LINK THEM TO PREHISTORIC MEN

PEIPING, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Discovery of two skulls, believed to be those of prehistoric men, was announced today by research workers attached to the Peiping Union Medical college.

The skulls were found west of Peiping at the scene of the discovery of the famed "Peking Man."

Anthropological experts declared the discoveries were of the "utmost importance." They declined to discuss the finds, saying they were too busy examining the skulls.

Mexico's Two 'Strong Men' Agree to End Their Quarrel

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Political sources said tonight President Lazaro Cardenas and Gen. Saturnino Cedillo—Mexico's two "strong men"—have patched up their differences. Cedillo, virtual dictator of the state of San Luis Potosi, has been under fire from leftists. In political circles it was said that Cedillo offered the president his resignation from the cabinet, in which he is secretary of agriculture, but that Cardenas refused it.

Sir:—

As a citizen and an upright holder of the laws of my country I am cooperating with the ruling of the post office department in preparing my enclosing this letter in a package which you will receive very shortly under separate cover. Only bills drawing right of payment, justly, are permitted and approved.

Let me reassure you, if you should have some sort of qualm or physical fear regarding the opening of the package, it would constitute an act of my dignity in solving a situation by destructive force. I am a firm believer in intelligent manipulation, adjustment and recovery. Here is to recovery and victory and here is my provided package, a sample of what recovery means today.

A pair gold-worn-tin wrinkle-pajamas-slept in until the very shades pried to receive the cold air of a cotton blanket. Sodden and scrawny to expose a body exposed to the rock grinds of a WPA project, even at this sunny clime of golden California. Here you find, mixed and mingled, men ranging in race and age, from Mexican to full white trash, from conservative, loyal + trusting businessman to indigents of stagnant and malignant proletarian.

And here you have a father of a family, small family. I grant you, with just one child - one son - to carry on his heritage - who as the magazine ads of $55 per month, less deductions for missing days, to eat, sleep and clothe. The fundamentals of preventative existence. With rent eating up 40% of the outlay, and the landlord knocking at the door when he dimly attempts to raise and increase his appraisal, there remains $8 per week for which food only - and such as may merely economically prolong - can be purchased. Fuel, medicine, or unforeseen emergencies, such as sickness, are reserved to purchase unpurchasable fruits and vegetables.

And what should be done for clothing, for toilet requisites, for sanitary purposes which should be used for many. This average man - this honest unbroken progeny was a successful businessman among a business and a home. His manhood always respected his name of relief, who as an honest and independent person who respects his own character, loves his family and desires, above all, to be an contingent citizen of his country.

He would like to call his soul his own again, to transfer himself into private employment, for a livable job on liberal terms. Instead of finding prosperity around the corner, he is confronted with refusals of different excuses. He is subjected to the whims and psychology of others, who have a million and one viewpoints on how to do the one thing. But nothing tangible is forthcoming and he returns to his work project. a tilling the soil. a man who would be happily at home w the ground were his own little farm and on which there would be his family would be home fit and suitable for his ailing wife.

I am not speaking for myself Mr. President. I am many others. but I am a friend to these people - and all others who, like myself are in similar circumstances. What relief, especially work does - like tendencies does to an intelligent mind. as beyond human description. it sucks the marrow out of one's bones. What he wants. and myself. is adjustable employment for the individual - classified in corporation of the physical and mental potentialities. He should be made to feel that his ambitions to improve, should be founded on fundamental structures of sound and basic realities. He should be assisted in securing desirable employment and should refuse to accept illusionary disillusioning fabrications. He should recognize honesty in the form of dignity and graft. He should always enjoy the rights of our Constitution - chiefly the right of free speech and honest opinion and shall express himself freely at all times

Here, Mr. President, is a tale of a pair of stream-lined pajamas, air-conditioned, by which hangs still a holier tale. The suffering of a people who have every faith and hope in their heroic representative of the people. the President of their United States. Their salvation is wrapped up in You - your courtesy, assistance, wisdom, inspiration - your partnership with other Presidents & other manipulators, with the future - which is big and vast, promising and unknowable. please, Mr. President, give your power, your resources - your people - a little pep.

Very sincerely yours,

Rose Hayes

Sir:

For six years I was an Inspector of Private Schools, Manila, Philippine Islands, transferring recently to the Indian Service. In 1933, three young men returned to the Islands after having completed their education in the States. Unable to find positions, they founded a private school, naming it the Roosevelt High School in honor of you. I had occasion to visit their school many times and found their work much above the average.

The school is located in Piddig, Ilocos Norte, a small town where transportation is most difficult. When I was leaving, the Director, Mr. Justo Arquero, gave the enclosed hand woven towel to me and I am now sending it to you. I hope that you will find it of interest.

Dear Mr. President -

An important event in the life of a private citizen, is to write to you, President of the United States, and send to you a drawing which I completed last election day.

The picture, worked out in grease-pencil technique, and to an almost life size, was drawn from a small cut from a Detroit news paper.

I am twenty years of age, born and raised in Kalamazoo, Michigan, and am soon to finish my studies as a student of the Detroit Art Academy.

Please accept this letter and drawing along with my late, but sincere wishes to you, for the coming years.

I want to present to you a picture I made. I have been studying your features and sat down one evening and sketched this of you. I have made a three quarter view just as large of you. Archer is a Cheese Lover and I was able to procure what we both think to be the finest American Cheese Either of us had ever eaten

During archers long and intimate contact with the President at Warm Springs he discovered that the President loved a Cheese Rarebit.

Now it is in the Code of the Hounds to Cheese one another and Carp after Meil I could send the President Some of this Cheese.

This was done, the Cheese was sent accordingly to Mrs Carps direction to Some one at the White House but carp tells me the President never received the Cheese. United States Senate
WASHINGTON, D. C.

January 29, 1937

Hon. Marvin H. McIntyre
Assistant Secretary to President Roosevelt
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Colonel McIntyre:

This will serve to introduce Mr. Leo Kolmar of Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. Kolmar is an artist and in November, last, secured from Miss LeHand a picture of the President, from which he has painted a life-size portrait of the President. Mr. Kolmar has the portrait with him and is very anxious to present it to the President. There are no strings attached to his offer. He merely wants to make a gift of his work to the President.

If you can arrange for him to see the President for just two minutes, at which time he may give the painting to the President with his compliments, I shall greatly appreciate it.

Sincerely yours,

Prentiss M Brown

Sir:

During the recent presidential campaign my father, Arthur Keppler, as one of your enthusiastic supporters, adopted a form of advertising which was considered by the many thousands who saw it, as being not only unique but original. As you will notice from the enclosed photographs, the display was cut from privet hedging and the letters coated on the inside with white paint. The effect created could be seen from a distance.

At the suggestion of residents of our community, I am sending you these photographs for your permanent possession.

Yours respectfully,

Cleveland Ohio January 25th 1937 Acknowledged 2/9/37 K

To our beloved President Franklin D. Roosevelt

Dear Sir, Frank ML TA 5413 Dolloff R2.

First of all, I beg your pardon, that I being a perfect stranger, take the liberty, of writing to you. In a seperate package, I am sending you, also to Mrs. Roosevelt, as you will see, an odd picture, a Badge of The Sacred Heart, of Our Lord, I hope you will accept this little gift, which is send to you, with a good intension, from one of God's least children. Your Religion, and mine, may be a little different, in some ways, but Our God, is the same, and some day, we all expect, to meet in Heaven with Our Father, Catholics have a special Devotion, to The Sacred Heart, especially on the first Fridays, of each month. The only joy God, permits me in this world, is working on these Badges, and sending them to different people and countries, that is why I thought of sending you one also. There is a certain Blessing promised by Our Lord, to those, that keep a picture of the Sacred Heart, in their homes. Please do not think Catholics are superstitious, or something in that line, the Badge in it selve is not powerful, we respect it, as you would for instance respect, a picture of your mother, or some one you love. May God bless, and reward you abundently, for all efforts, and the great work, you have accomplished, and sacrifices you have brought, for God, Country and Nation. Sincerely Yours

Christine Kamenicky.

Vaší Excelenci.

Prosím snažně Vaší Excelenci, o laskavé přijetí tohoto dopisu. Dne 21./X. 1936. jsem odeslal ve dřevě vykládaný obraz Vaší Excelence v přátelském a srdečném hovoru s panem zemřelým Antonínem Čermákem, krátce před svou tragickou smrtí. Vaše Excelence s panem Ant. Dear Mr. President:

Am sending you this dry point etching on aluminum of a ten meter boat in Long Island Sound, which etching I made during my spare time when laid off. Heard you like boats and thought you might like one more for your collection. I am only a beginner at this kind of work, picking it up by myself, and know you will understand if it is not perfect.

Being I feel almost as if you were an old family friend I take this liberty of trying to please you for all you have done - which indirectly gave me more work than formerly.

Being laid off again I am working on an etching of your portrait and if it turns out a good likeness I shall be glad to send you a print.

I am mailing this picture unframed rather than have the glass arrive broken and the print damaged.

Hoping to see you some time, I am one of your young admirers,

Dear Chummy:-

Thank you for your very nice letter. We are all delighted with the record of your march "Redskin" which you were good enough to send.

The President asks me to send you his very best wishes and he hopes some day to have the pleasure of seeing you again.

Dear Miss LeHand:

When the Navy Band played my march, "Redskin", Jan.25, we had a record taken off the air. One of these has been mailed you under another cover. I hope it may be played on the White House phonograph, and will give pleasure to the President, and to all of you.

I have had a number of requests for the manuscript of this music, from bands and small orchestras. It will be played at the national convention of American bandmasters in Milwaukee next month, and, so I am told, by several large bands in the middle west afterwards. I am planning to make an arrangement later on for a symphony orchestra. I am also making arrangements of a group of songs, with full band accompaniment, harp obligato and voice, to be played at a concert at Stanford University in May. If this suite pleases the audience I will send the manuscript to the leader of the Navy Band for him to look over, and possibly, have the Band play.

With very best wishes,

Sincerely,

Chummy Keating

My dear President:

This liberty in writing to you I am taking because for many years I have been interested sincerely in your fine career. And for that reason I am sending you this belated birthday present - "The Tide of Empire" by Peter B. Kyne - this was an especial limited edition and the author has autographed it with his characteristic mark. This I consider a most appropriate gift because you have changed the tide of our empire from ebb to flood tide throught your magnificent leadership.

Also I am enclosing a picture which I would greatly appreciate your autographing to me personally - and if your very program permits I assure you that I would deeply treasure this extreme courtesy of a very busy and very great man.

For this long anticipated picture and letter I have a very definite place - I would frame them both and display in my school room along with a special portrait of Pres. Washington. And every pupil who enters will know and thrill to intimacy of our greatest living American.

During a recent sojourn in Japan I failed to find a single picture of their Emporor - and yet to me it is a duty to display and pay silent tribute to the pictured likeness of our President.

And so I ask you again for this extreme courtesy to serve as a constant inspiration to young America - and also to daily inspire their teacher to seek to achieve something of your goodness, greatness and courage.

Very sincerely

My Dear Miss LeHand :

I sent four holy pictures of great Rabbis to you by special delivery mailed from Boston on November 2 at 12 o'clock to Hyde Park so that they would be good lawyers for the President before election. To make the President happy.

The circulars I found in Bridgeport and Boston on the streets aggravated me terribly in what the bluebloods where doing to take away votes from our dear FDR.

If you are keeping the pictures in a good place or if in a library i am happy, if not kindly return them to me. Also I would like to make an appointment with you to see you. Kindly advise.

Honored Sir:

Yesterday I had the very great honor of sending to you a letter relative to my work in your behalf in the recent campaign for the Presidency.

This morning, when I again read over a copy of my letter, I felt very bad when I noticed that the secretary who wrote the letter for me had made a very terrible mistake in the third paragraph.

I want to correct this mistake at once, and I am therefore sending this letter to you. The mistake I refer to is in the third paragraph of my letter, and I want to write that third paragraph again, in this letter, as I dictated it and intended it to be written: " I sent to you, last November, before the election, the pictures of four great Rabbis who are now dead, and who , when they were alive, were among the greatest scholars and the greatest representatives of the Jews. I told you that their souls would be favorable arguments in your favor before the Almighty Above. Honorable F.D.Roosevelt,
Washington, D.C.

I want to wish you the very best of health and success in your second term as President.

All of the Jews are with you in your friendly and sympathetic actions towards the minority nations of the World, and especially in this country.

I sent to you, last November, shortly before the election, the pictures of four rabbis who were opposing your campaign for reelection, and stated their names and stated how their work could be made ineffective.

If you wish to retain these pictures in your library, I will be honored, but if you have no further desire for them, please return them to me so that I may preserve them, myself.

It may interest you to know that in the interests of your reelection, I printed circulars and had them distributed among the people of my race, using the strongest arguments in favor of your election. I did all this at my own expense. I did this because I admire your great work.

I wish that you would sponsor legislation in favor of establishing a system of courts where controversies shall be settled by arbitration rather than by trials; in favor of legislation specifically making the Ku Klux Klan illegal and criminal; and also that you would favor laws that penalize anti-semitism.

es

I would like you to know that at I am urging the heads of my synagogue and also all other synagogues, to have prayers said for your continued good health and strength, and of your entire family .

Please let me hear from you soon.
