Mr. President -

The information in the attached clipping has induced some of us present-day Panama Railroad employees to offer you this little relic of the days when your relative was also a "Panama Railroad man".

My dear Mr. President:

Under separate cover, I sent you last week a package of cigars and cigarettes for your personal consumption, as usual.

I hope that in spite of my humble person, I may be able to serve the mutual interests of the American and Filipino people here in the Philippines, in the capacity of a humble citizen.

Mr. President, am very anxious to know thru the press that you and your sons enjoyed exceedingly of your vacation trip throughout the American territories, but what make me regret very much is the fact that you did not extend same honor to our beloved Philippines.

Best regards to you, to your family, and especially to your mother and grand children. With the fresh breezes of the Manila Bay.

Commends to the President's attention, book entitled "The General Welfare Clause" written by Mr. James F. Lawson, Assistant General Counsel for the Federal Power Commission. The book is an exposition of the powers of Congress under the general welfare clause of the Constitution, and as a whole, is in support of the President's wonderful attempts to remedy by law the situation that confronted him on March 4, 1933. Mr. Russell says he is asking Mr. Lawson to personally mail to the President a copy of the book for his examination.

Attached is copy of letter dated August 31 from Mr. Lawson to the President, by which he says he sends copy of his brief on the General Welfare Clause of the Constitution, which he says contains the answer to the screed now emanating from the kept lawyers of the American Bar Association and the pseudo American Liberty League, and is a constitutional argument fur the New Deal.

Dear Mr. President:

The package accompanying this letter contains a leather billfold and key case and a dog carved in ivory soap.

These small gifts represent the cooperative effort of the patients of Leahi Home, a sanitorium for tuberculosis in Honolulu, and were made under the auspices of their occupational therapy department.

The billfold and key case were designed by Herbert MacDonald and made by Jose Hernandez, Masuichi Mitsui, and Harry Nitta. Hideji Watanabe did the soap carving and Thomas Daishi is responsible for the presentation card.

It has given all of the patients a great deal of pleasure to be able to do this and in a small measure has mitigated the disappointment felt by them in not being able to be in the crowds attending your welcoming reception.

Please accept this little gift with the sincere aloha of the entire hospital.

Respectfully

Florence Oberman

Mr. Franklin D. ROOSEVELT,
President of the United States,
The White House, Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President,

Kindly allow me to send you under separate cover a copy of my book entitled : UNIVERSALISM - THE IDEAL STATE, which is just out of press and might interest you, I believe.

This essay, written as a modest contribution to the Great Cause of International Peace, is the expression of the views of a plain man of the people on the complicated problems of the world and their possible remedies. My whole book is an appeal to humanity in favor of better international understanding and congeniality and the diffusion of these ideas ought, I think, to be encouraged and heartily supported. I strongly advocate that a Federation of Nations under a central government, similar to the United States of America, should replace the powerless League of Nations.

I am convinced that such world problems as disarmament, international debts, territorial claims and permanent peace can only be solved through a more intimate union of nations, solidly bound together in spirit and in fact, based upon an improved educational understanding of the Brotherhood of Man, erasing racial lines. Sooner or later, humanity will have to work its own salvation in that manner which may appear rather idealistic at first sight, but nevertheless is the only logical solution to the long-pending difficulties of mankind.

I sincerely admire your initiative and broadmindedness and I would appreciate very much to be favored with your comments and support. I mean well, I intend to make this peace campaign the work of my lifetime, but I need strong support and your approval would give me a most encouraging start.

Thanking you very sincerely for your kind attention and with best wishes for the success of your worthy endeavors, I have the honor to remain

Very respectfully yours

Dear President Roosevelt:

In deep and sincere appreciation of the blessings brought to them through your cattle buying program, the people of Texas County, Missouri, through me, their humble servant, are sending to you a crude token of their respect and esteem.

Crops and pastures have failed and this wonderful program has saved thousands of cattle from starvation and the people who own them from want and misery during the coming winter.

wrote 9/15/34

The "cow bell", which they are sending by parcel post, was contributed by Mr. W. L. Light, Route 3, Willow Springs, Missouri, and he would be very grateful for a letter from you, acknowledging its receipt. This particular bell has been mended several times as you may see when you examine it.

While both its sound and its lustre may seem dull to you it speaks the language of the people, wherever lowing herds roam the forests of Texas County. It is intended to convey to you a mite of encouragement to help you carry your heavy load of responsibility. It expresses the wish of the people of Texas County that your efforts in behalf of the forgotten man may succeed and that the "New Deal" may bring security and contentment to all the people.

Dear President Roosevelt,

In appreciation of your splended work in guiding this country back to better times, I am sending you this N. R. A. Blue Eagle emblem. This recovery program which you have planed has given everybody better hopes for the future, and we all believe that your achievements will be one of the greatest in the history of the United States. We all have confidence in you and your work and believe you are one of the best presidents in the history of the United States that has worked for the majority of the people in helping them have a more successful and happy life.

This emblem of the Blue Eagle is made of beads woven together by threads having 6,880 beads. I worked on it during my spare time. My Father made the frame and easel from a piece of walnut wood from an old organ over 80 years old. He also made the box in which it is sent.

I am seventeen years old, a student in the third year of the West Allis High School. I take quite an intrest in the social and economic affairs of this country, and am anxious for more improvements and better living conditions for everyone. I know you are doing a great part to do this and although I am sending you this emblem, it only expresses part of my great appreciation of having you President of the United States and to have you as our leader.

Yours Truly,

Because of the many official matters requiring the President's attention, it has been customary at the White House for Mr. Early and myself t act on the President's behalf in receiving all gifts and, accordingly, either of us will be glad to accept the lynx and serval felis whenever it suits your convenience to bring or send them down.

For your own information it is our intention to arrange to house the animals in the Washington Zoo, in order that they may be given proper care and attention.

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President of the United States,
Washington, D. C.

Honorable Sir:

I am an American, permanently located in Somaliland, N. F. P. of Kenya and Abyssinia, where I am engaged principally in the exporting of leopard skins to the United States. Incidentally the trapping of leopards is part of the work in which I am engaged.

I am back again in the United States after three and a half years in Africa and some of the natives employed by me in my various expeditions, when informed of my intended visit to the United States, told me of the unsuccessful efforts of our former President, Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, with whom they were on his hunting expedition in the localities above, to capture the elusive African lynx and serval felis.

They asked me on my visit here to present to the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, called by them our "Old Chief" a live lynx and a live serval felis, both in the kitten stage, and naturally tame, and thus wipe out the disappointment which he then had. I explained to them the decease of the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, and that your Excellency is now the President of the United States. They, of course, understand that you are the son or other near relative of the late Mr. Roosevelt, and that you inherited your office from him as such relative. Particularly is this so because of the similarity of names.

These natives asked me to present these two speciments to you as my "New Chief" of the late President Roosevelt, with their blessings and hoping for your appreciation of their gift as a reminder of their hunting expedition with the late Mr. Roosevelt.

I am returning to Africa at the end of this month, and I hope, if possible, to be presented to Your Excellency, the "New Chief" so as to deliver this gift of the natives of Somaliland, and to bring back to them such message as you will be kind enough to send to them.

I will be honored to present these gifts to you.

I may add that I shall also present to the Smithsonian Institute a python skin, one of the largest, and other interesting articles from that part of Africa.

In re: The Little African Cats.

Dear Mr. McIntyre:

These animals have rickets in such an advanced stage that I think it very unwise to place them on exhibition. At the present time they would make a very bad impression.

We have them at home in the bathroom and are trying by proper feeding and massage to get their legs functioning and as soon as they are fit to be shown will place them in exhibition cages in the Zoo.

The little caracal has a much better chance of surviving than the serval.

We are very glad that the world now knows that the President likes pets. I hope that all the Asiatic and Central African papers will copy.

Writes President that at 9th annual national congress of vocational agricultural students held in conjunction with the American Royal Livestock Show in Kansas City, Missouri last week, nearly 4,000 boys from 47 states and Hawaii were in attendance. Action was taken to purchase a prize fat lamb produced and exhibited by one of the members and send it to President with compliments of 82,000 students who are members of the "F.F.A." Lamb weighs 89 lbs. and it was arranged to have Wilson & Co. dress and ship it to White House about Tuesday of that wk. Attached is a picture of the lamb, and the exhibitor and Mr. Sundstrom. Also a copy of wire sent to President re the gift, and a blue badge of the Show. President wrote Mr. Sundstrom Nov.7, asking him to thank everyone concerned for message and gift, which pleased him very much, stating he's keeping the blue ribbon for his collection of souvenirs. Sent best wishes to all.

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

This morning a very beautiful carved wooden plaque representing a tribute to the President and bearing his likeness was received at this Institution, the casing bearing a White House label addressed as follows: "The Warden, U. S. Penitentiary, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania," with "Pittsburgh" crossed out and "Lewisburg" substituted therefor. This has been forwarded to me apparently in error; and as the metal plate on the back of the plaque bears in its inscription the words "W. S. Penitentiary," which might easily have been misinterpreted as "U. S. Penitentiary," I presume that the plaque was intended for the Warden of the Western State Penitentiary at Pittsburgh.

wrote 11/8/34

I am taking the liberty of writing you about this matter because inside the casing is a tag addressed to Mrs. James Roosevelt, Sr., with your name in the return space. Believing, therefore, that the plaque was probably mailed under your direction, I shall hold it until I hear from you what disposition you desire me to make of it.

Dear Mr. President:

The Los Angeles Bar Association determined it wanted to do something to cement a better relationship between the members of the Bar and the public in general.

In furtherance of this thought, a cast of lawyers from the Association reproduced the proceedings which took place at Independence Hall when the Constitution of the United States was formed.

Our stage setting was historically correct and the characters were dressed exactly in accordance with the period.

We produced this absolutely free to the public and high school and college students.

The Pageant was held at Shrine Auditorium on Friday, November 16th and Saturday, November 17th.

The Auditorium has a capacity of sixty-five hundred and we were somewhat apprehensive as to whether we could fill it, but I am pleased to tell you that we had requests for over one hundred thousand tickets.

I have the honor to enclose a souvenir script of the Pageant.

Our Association is much heartened at the reception accorded the Pageant. This reception was a practical demonstration that the rank and file of our people are still loyal to our Government.

Permit me to remain, sir,

Most respectfully yours,

Hon Dear President
Franklin D Roosevelt
Washington, D.C.

Dear friend:- I am presenting you one of my puzzles for your Christmas; I enjoy makeing them here at home when I am not working in my garden or working on politics for the Democrats.

Sir I worked over a week here for Mr Picard and Mr Hart to send to you and we seemingly failed this time, But maby another time I will be happier about the results.

Sir will you please sign the veterans adjusted certificate bill next session I feel sure that would be right, and I know you would be reelected if you did for the veteran vote is real strong and most of us need this money to pay on our homes.

my family joins me in wishing you and all others at Washington a merry Christmas and we hope you will fully succeed as our chief executive

Respectfully yours
Arthur Lee Box 7 Alma Mich

My dear President:

I have never seen yaw, but yaur fame is world wide. I believe yaw are as good as yaw are great, an am proud of yaw as President of my country.

I am a poor boy of sixteen. I am in tenth grade at High school. I work hard nights and day hoping when I finish school to became a great an useful man. I love art, and studying it now in school. So wishing to do something for yaw, I drew yaur picture; which I am sending to yaw. I hope yaw will appreciate it.

My father can't help me much as I have other sisters and brothers, and he hardly works enough to keep us. But I won't be discaibraged. I would appreciate yaur encouragement, however small. Please Answer my letter.

Wishing yaw a very Merry Christmas and a Most successful New Year.

Sincerely,
Joseph Lawhorn
