Dear Mr. Lohrke:

This will acknowledge your letter of May thirtieth, with which you forwarded a copy of Volume 1, Number 1, of Alert, Civilian Defense News. Permit me, also, to thank you for your thoughtful action in sending the President a bound copy of the first issue.

The President, as you know, is working under an unusually heavy pressure these days -- a pressure that bids fair to increase steadily as the war effort becomes more intense. On this account, it has been necessary for him greatly to curtail the sending of personal letters and I am sure you will understand why he cannot make personal acknowledgment. Moreover, the President, ever since he has been in his present position, has followed a course of not writing exclusively for any publication. As he has not deviated, even once, from this course I am sure you will appreciate the difficulty of making an exception.

Dear Mr. Early:

We are mailing you a copy of ALERT: Civilian Defense News, a new paper published in New York, at the same time as we are sending the President a bound copy of the first paper to come from the press.

We hope you will enjoy reading ALERT and we most earnestly solicit your co-operation in putting it before the President and securing a short statement from him which we can publish.

We are sending a copy to Mr. Landis in the same mail.

Our whole aim in ALERT is to enrich and humanize the work of civilian defense and we feel, and others feel, that we have a great chance here to do real spade work in the whole field of national morale.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

We all want to keep you as long as we can for the duration of another term - so like one of my family, the late "Pocahontas", I love horses, and from a beautiful farm here in Nashville, Tennessee I am sending you this portrait of a horse raised on the farm and made on the wood taken from a tree that grew there.

So when you get blue and worried, look at the horse and forget your troubles, since the responsibility, I know, is hard.

My Mother's family, the late President Buchanan, which hangs upstairs in your private suite, has always seemed to be one of your favorite Presidents, which I am very happy to know.

I hope you will enjoy this beautiful horse, as well as I enjoy sending it to you.

With very best wishes,

Sincerely Yours Truly,

Miss Lois Leeper.

INDEPENDENCE DAY 1942

His Excellency,
The President of The United States,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.

acked 7/8/42 Ack GCT Thanks

Mr. President :

As Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of The United States of America, I beg you will accept the book enclosed "Poems of Patriotism" written by the poet that all America reads and loves, even as YOU are loved by all classes races, creeds and colors of the people in our grand and glorious Country GOD BLESS HER.

Your Excellency, this is a gift from me to you, and only in a democracy such as we enjoy could this happen. I hope upon perusal you will agree with me it should be made part of every Recruit's knapsack, and it is bound to help the morale of all the men in all the ranks of the service.

While browsing in a book store, I happened on this little GEM, read it through, took it home to confirm the lasting impression, read it several times and was so convinved of its worth I obtained enough to send each of our 94 boys who left from VISITATION PARISH a copy for INDEPENDENCE DAY 1942.

It cannot help but confirm all your own ideas that we are in the right as GOD gives us to see the right, so help Us GOD, - and HE WILL we know.

Nobody young or old today can doubt that we are defending our own way of life, at the same time helping to liberate others from the cruelty and tyranny of despotism.

We shall win and THANK GOD for the Graces that we've never known before, never will courage falter and never will we run from the foe --- winning the war is the job for us.

Reading this book will inspire our American boys with their individual as well as group importance, every line brings out the GLORY OF DUTY, the big task undertaken which now is ours , forgetting petty differences, and never our purpose forget.

GOD BLESS YOU MR. PRESIDENT, please remember I am only one of many remembering you daily in our prayers.

My dear Miss LeHand:--

By registered Special I sent a package to THE PRESIDENT containing an autographed book, Poems of Patriotism by the poet that all America reads and loves. It is a gift from me to the Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces. I've sent one in the same mail to each of our boys from VISITATION PARISH in the armed forces, God Bless 'em.

Please ask President to personally open this artistically wrapped package by a young wife of one of the ARMED FORCES. She breathed into her every touch of the blue and gold wrapping A PRAYER FOR PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.
Her name is: Mrs. Virginia Smylie
c/o J.L.Hudson Company, Artistic Wrappings

Her exclamation would have delighted Our President, viz: "Wait till I tell my Grandmother I've wrapped a gift that the President will open himself" -- it seems this dear old Grandma is the THIRD TERM PRESIDENT of the Garden Society who visited the White House.
Her name is: Mrs. M. P. Shannon

Would it be too much have an acknowledgement made to her on her artistic ability, for OUR PRESIDENT is sure to feel what she put into this special token of love in wrapping a gift for him in blue and gold satin ribbon, outside of the joy he will take in reading with my boys from Visitation Parish Edgar Guest's Poems of Patriotism.

Respectfully and sincerely I wish you God's Blessings.

The Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt
President of The United States
The White House, Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

I know that you are a philatelist of much note. I realize that events since December 7, have precluded the possibility of your having any time to devote to your hobby. I thought you would appreciate this token from one ex-navy man to another.

It symbolizes you to all good Americans. (And we both hope fervently that there are no other kind) as the Man of Peace, the Stamp Collector, aroused from his good and human pursuits, forced to don the garb of that most feared of fighting warriers, The American Eagel.

It would be a wonderful pleasure if we could get together for just one more whack at the enemy but thru the years we have both taken on obligations that relegate us to the status of Home Frontirs though our hearts are with the Fleet.

Mr. President, I pray that thoes things will come to pass that you, in your fondest dreams for the future, have envisioned. A dread responsibility is yours but you belong to the Little Men of America, and they stand beside you, unquestioning, willing to serve, firm in the conviction that Their Men will face that responsibility with all the strength that their added might has given him.

May God bless you Mr. President.

My dear Mrs. Littleton:

Your letter of July second has been received and this little note conveys the President's cordial thanks for the framed portrait of Thomas Jefferson which you were good enough to send him. He wants you to know that he is deeply grateful for your friendly thoughts and your prayers during these critical days.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. President:

I am sending the enclosed knitted lapel ornaments to you as President of the American Red Cross, so that you may know what just one of your workers is doing to benefit this great cause.

They have been popular in our City of Palo Alto and I find it difficult to supply the demand. This, of course, is just a sideline to my regular work as a Volunteer.

I might add that I am the very proud mother of a corporal with the United States Army in Australia.

Mr. McIntyre has your recent letters in reference to your desire for an appointment with him while you were in Washington. As explained to you on the 'phone, he is sorry that it was not possible for him to see you. However, literally every minute of his time is filled with his official duties here. It has therefore been necessary for him to curtail all engagements to those dealing with the immediate problems of the hour.

Mr. McIntyre has asked me to return the contents of the package which you left at the White House garage, since it would embarrass him and the President to accept them under the circumstances.

You may be assured that your prayers and good wishes are very much appreciated, and it is hoped that you will understand the situation.

Dear Mr. McIntyre

Please be kind enough to pardon me, if I take just a few moments of your time. I came in from Long Island on Tuesday, called Miss Jeanette M. Bachelder, she informed me that you are very busy, every minute of your time is taken these trying days. I sincerely hope that you take care of yourself, and relax every once in a while, my thoughts are of you every once in a while, with a silent prayer for your health and happiness.

I expect to stay in Washington until next Wednesday or Thursday, as there is some business I want to attend to, after being in ill health for more than two years and a half, I find now, how much I want to help - do my share. I value your your advice, if only you would grant me a few moments of your time before I leave Washington, and goodness only knows when I will be able to make another trip out here.

Do, Mr Mc Intosh, allow me to see you, and I promise you faithfully, I won't take any of your valuable time until I have accomplished what I so much desire for the United States. There is one more question I would like to ask of you! Will the Federal Secret Service allow me to attend the services in the Church that our Honorable President Roosevelt attends to. Must I have a permit? - I will greatly appreciate hearing from you. I am stopping at the Ambassador Hotel. Thanking very kindly, for your past goodness, for few moments. I want so to stay in Washington D. C. until Sunday so that I may attend the services at The Church 18th and Church Sts. I will consider that an honor. I was not quite sure if they will allow me to attend the services without an invitation or letter. If your secretary will write a few words- why I know that will be alright - I know the Secret Service department must take care. I would feel quite disappointed if I stayed until Sunday, and then was stopped from going to the services. "Faith" is a wonderful subject to work on, that is why I am able to walk as I do, after all the illness. Mr. President, of these United States, if only you will grant me a few moments of your time so that I can relate to you exactly how this miracle came about. I know you will be delighted to know, a good deal credit is due you in this case. Now, I am organizing a club it is called, "Young High School girls of America". They can do their part part to help win this war. The young ladies have expressed to me their desire, they have asked me to assist them. I have thought of a plan. Where by the proceeds will go to the treasury of the United States, they in turn will put same to a good cause.

Perhaps, from now, until Sunday I may have the good blessing, that your Honorable President will be kind enough to grant me a few moments of your time

I am writing this by request and in behalf of my aged Mother, Mrs Daniel Lasley, Route 2, Beaverton, Oregon, who im-
X migrated from Switzerland in the year 1890, with six children. Six were born to her in this country. She has seven girls and five boys all living. She is now 88 years of age and feels now that she is nearly at the end of her career.

Now when she hears about world conditions and the country where she came from she is very grateful to this nation for safe keeping and the blessings that has been hers through all these years. She says the one to whom she ought to express her gratitude is the Chief Executive of this nation in which she has been so greatly blessed.

She is hale and hearty and to pass her time she makes dailes. She wants to send one to your Honor to show her handywork.

I am sorry to bother you as I know you are a very busy man, but it is the request of one who will soon depart.

Dear Mr. President:

We are sending you today by parcel post a "Jonah and Jake" war bond money bank. We hope this will meet with your approval.

My brother and I operate a pottery which employs about thirty people. Before the war we made art ware exclusively, but we have begun to manufacture these money banks as a contribution to the war effort.

Will you please accept this small present with our best wishes?

Mr. President:

e been informed that the original of your ait which appeared on LIBERTY, August 22nd, was sent to you as a gift from LIBERTY. I fore am taking this opportunity, as the artist who painted it, of not only writing to you my part in the presentation but to also take a moment of your valuable time to remind you of an incident that happened while you were Governor of New York State.

You were having your portrait painted by DeWitt Lockman in the Sherwood Studios, 58 West 57th Street. One day as you were leaving, I happened to be in the elevator which stopped for you. Mr. Lockman was saying good-bye to you. Knowing about the portrait, and also knowing Mr. Lockman, I took the liberty of asking you, "How is the portrait going, Mr. Governor"? Your reply was, "Well, the head is finished and I guess that's all that counts anyway".

I never have, or never will forget that because of the truth in it.

I hope my effort is worthy.

Dear Mr President

I am writing this letter to ask you to look at this picture. It shows the different nations that have joined with the United States. It is not a very good drawing. But maybe you can get somebody who will draw it over to look like something. At the bottom under the D it ooo—. They show the three different people who are helping to get peace and a medal who is Trying to kill peace. I sure wish it wasn't peace he was killing but himself.

I have in here a picture which I wish you would keep. I drew it myself. Would you please keep it and never loose it

With Hope

Dear Mr. President:

I am enclosing for your consideration my book just completed, autographed to you. I know that you are very busy but would appreciate very much an early expression from you as to the contents of this booklet "Our Presidents".

I would appreciate any suggestions from you as to whether or not, in your judgment, the book is complete as a patriotic book, and if any additions should be made to it, please advise me.

I expect to make it possible for all of the boys in our armed forces to receive one of these books free to them. Of course this must be done through some of our patriotic and benevolent citizens of this country. By selling the books in such volumes it can be published at very low prices. The present plan calls for the U.S.O. and the American Red Cross deriving a certain percent from the sale of each book.

With kindest regards, and hoping to hear from you soon, I remain
