Hon. Marvin H. McIntyre,
Secretary to President Roosevelt,
White House,
Washington, D. C.

Dear friend Mack:

I attended the Inauguration, but did not attempt to see you because I knew your time was precious. It was a great triumph for the nation in general and for our peerless leader, President Roosevelt, in particular. It was a great inspiration to me to witness the consummation of the great national movement in which I had the privilege to play at least a minor part to place in the White House as President, the greatest leader in his day and generation.

Enclosed find one or two of my editorials which I hope meet with your approval. If you have a chance, let the President know that I am happy in his success.

Now I have a small favor I wish to ask of you. It has nothing to do with patronage. Mother M. Michelle of Springfield Junior College, a dear, good woman who entertains a deep affection for President Roosevelt, prepared some special and very delicious stick candy called "Ole Kentucky Stick," such as her mother used to make for her when she was a little girl in Kentucky. Mother Michelle and the girls of her classes were anxious that I should present a sample of that "Ole Kentucky Stick" to the President when I went to the Inauguration. I did take it with me, but the proprieties forbade that I attempt to approach you or the President, but I stretched the truth a little and told Mother Michelle that I presented it to you and that you said you would later seek an opportunity to present it to the President.

If you can write just a line of acknowledgment so I can show it to Mother Michelle, that will make an old lady's heart very happy. I did carry the candy to Washington and I did intend to speak to you of it if I got within earshot of you.

If I am appointed Assistant Secretary of the Navy, I shall expect you to induct me into office with your famous colored story, if not with a clambake on Narragansett Bay.

Our Motto: Boost and the World Smiles With You!

"OLE KENTUCKY STICK" ONE OF SPRINGFIELD'S SWEET SMILE-PRODUCERS

A few days ago we received a very delightful little gift from Springfield Junior College in the form of a stick of candy, all wrapped up and sealed, and, oh, so delicious and good and easy to eat!

With it came another stick, just as prettily wrapped, and bearing the inscription:

"FOR—
"MR. ROOSEVELT,
"PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES:
"THIS 'OLE KENTUCKY STICK' WILL KEEP HIM SWEET AND GOOD!"

It was sent in our care, and, because it was so delicious and smile-producing, we tucked it away carefully in our grip, carried it to Washington and on inauguration day delivered it to our friend Marvin H. McIntyre, press secretary to President Roosevelt, at the White House, who promised to deliver it to the "boss" at the first opportunity!

If "Mack" doesn't eat it himself, the president has a sweet morsel in store!

We express our gratitude to Mother M. Michelle who, for a quarter of a century, has made the "Ole Kentucky Stick" one of the sweetest, smile-producing agencies in Springfield!

When members of graduating classes are about to take their "exams" each receives one of these "Ole Kentucky Sticks" to sweeten the hours and inspire extra effort!

It is a special make of candy originating in Kentucky where Mother Michelle lived as a little girl, and oh, it is so good!

Whenever a graduate from one of the college classes ventures into the realm of matrimony she receives an "Ole Kentucky Stick" as a cheerful token of sweetness and goodness in days to come!

"Kentucky Colonel" may sound well
As title honorary,
But this glad truth I'm proud to tell
Of something sweeter—very!

Ye "Ole Kentucky Stick" I crave;
From Springfield Junior College;
It makes the eater good and brave
And sweetens profound knowledge!

Ye "Ole Kentucky Stick" is grand
With charms indeed poetic!
There's nothing in this bankless land
So sweetly dietetic!

May Junior College prosper long
And ever happy be!
For "Ole Kentucky Stick" I'm strong!
I hope you "stick" with me!

GREAT LEADERSHIP

Though he has been president only one week, Franklin D. Roosevelt, sustained by congress without partisan division, has established an unprecedented record for leadership.

This brief period has written dramatic chapters in American history.

Here are the outstanding accomplishments:

THE INAUGURATION AND AN INAUGURAL ADDRESS THAT REFLECTS HOPE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

THE CALLING OF CONGRESS INTO IMMEDIATE SPECIAL SESSION TO MEET PRESENT-DAY EMERGENCIES.

A PROCLAMATION DECLARING A BANKING HOLIDAY.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT DELIVERS A LACONIC MESSAGE SETTING FORTH WITH REFRESHING BREVITY AND IRRESISTIBLE FORCE HIS GENERAL RELIEF PLAN.

WITHIN A FEW HOURS THE PRESIDENT SUBMITS ANOTHER BRIEF MESSAGE ON THE BANKING SITUATION.

THAT SAME DAY BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS PASS THE BANKING BILL WHICH IS SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT TO MAKE POSSIBLE REOPENING OF SOLVENT BANKS.

BANKING HOLIDAY IS EXTENDED BY ANOTHER PRESIDENTIAL PROCLAMATION.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SUBMITS HIS ECONOMY MESSAGE STRIKING DIRECTLY AT EXTRAVAGANCE AND OPENING THE DOOR TO PROSPERITY.

AN UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF PROGRAM IS PREPARED TO BE LAUNCHED AS SOON AS THE BANKING AND ECONOMY PROGRAMS HAVE BEEN MADE EFFECTIVE.

This heroic leadership has struck a responsive chord. The nation responds hopefully, the people applaud vigorously and the world marvels at the American spirit and the American courage in meeting adversity.

This is a moral and financial victory.

Open-minded men and women throughout the nation understand its meaning.

They know that the new day and the "new deal" are at hand.

soon, and of others which reopen later, will have government approval will go a long way toward re-establishing confidence.

The provision in the new bill which permits the controller to allow banks under conservators to receive new deposits subject to withdrawal without restriction gives bright promise of prompt renewal of banking activity here and elsewhere.

This is a thrilling and an inspiring drama: The Roosevelt leadership, the co-operation of congress, the optimism of the press and the fine American spirit of unity, faith and brotherhood uniting to make early return of prosperity certain beyond the peradventure of a doubt.

History repeats itself. From every emergency America has risen to new heights, new ideals and new statesmanship.

Few chapters in American history will be as interesting as those written into the executive and legislative records yesterday in Washington.

CONGRESS ACTS

The lightning-fast speed and irresistible force with which the new congress, in special session, enacted emergency banking legislation yesterday have thrilled the people of America with a new hope.

The harmony and intense patriotism with which congress moved to execute the will and wishes of the nation's new leader, President Roosevelt, give unmistakable assurance that the banks of the nation are soon to open, that the dead branches will be torn away from the avenues of trade, and that a great business revival will follow speedy readjustments.

Congress evidently found genuine inspiration in the inaugural appeal of President Roosevelt, which is very properly classed as a second Gettysburg address.

Not in the history of the nation except possibly in time of war, has there been a more dramatic chapter written into history than that yesterday when the new president and the new congress, moving with one accord, produced relief financial legislation which promises to bring an early end to present-day chaos.

The element of partisanship was negligible. The spirit of co-operation prevailed. Members of house and senate followed their leader like heroic soldiers upon the field of battle.

The legislation enacted points the way for the opening of "sound banks." The basis for the classification will be determined by the most dependable and expeditious machinery.

Provision is made for the long-needed security of bank deposits. The emergency measure strikes with severe penalties at violation of banking privileges, places an emergency check upon the flow of gold, prohibits hoarding of gold, provides for the expansion of currency on the sound basis of government bonds, liquid assets and the issuance of federal reserve bank notes, and, in short, clears the way for prompt re-establishment of business.

That the "soundness" of banks which reopen soon, and of others which reopen later, will have government approval will go a long way toward re-establishing confidence.

The provision in the new bill which permits the controller to allow banks under conservators to receive new deposits subject to withdrawal without restriction gives bright promise of prompt renewal of banking activity here and elsewhere.

This is a thrilling and an inspiring drama: The Roosevelt leadership, the co-operation of congress, the optimism of the press and the fine American spirit of unity, faith and brotherhood uniting to make early return of prosperity certain beyond the peradventure of a doubt.

History repeats itself. From every emergency America has risen to new heights, new ideals and new statesmanship.

Few chapters in American history will be as interesting as those written into the executive and legislative records yesterday in Washington.

There is abundant cause for national rejoicing as the brilliant sun of promise, radiant with a new hope, rises above the horizon of the future.

Are You a Member of the Confraternity of the Precious Blood?

In 1852 Pope Pius IX, in thanksgiving to the Precious Blood for his miraculous return to Rome from exile in Gaeta, granted unto all members of the Confraternity of the Precious Blood the "Extraordinary Privilege" of sharing in all the spiritual treasures of every religious order and community of priests and brothers in the entire Catholic Church.

Membership in the Precious Blood Confraternity, therefore, is like becoming a member of every other League, Association and Confraternity in the Church.

SHRINE PICTURE CERTIFICATE

The large Picture Certificate (12 x 16 inches in glorious colors) is a beautiful work of art and is intended to be framed for any room in the home. It is given to living members in the Confraternity and Union (Life Membership, offering $5) and (Perpetual Membership, offering $10), also (Perpetual Family Membership, offering $25). It is also given to those enrolling the dead members in the Purgatorial Society. (Perpetual Membership, offering $5.)

Triple Novena Medal

Jesus
Mary
Joseph

THE above picture of the Triple Novena Medal tells you what a treasure it is—a combination of the Pardon Crucifix, Mary's Medal and Joseph's Medal—called Triple because it unites those Three—Jesus, Mary and Joseph, on one medal even as they were united on earth and are now eternally united in Heaven.

Jesus! Mary! Joseph! are the three all-powerful names united in the Gospel (Matt. 1-18); the names first spoken by the growing child; the names which inspire men and women with trust and confidence in all the trials, problems and discouragements of life; the names whispered in the last breath of the dying! It consists of

1st. The Pardon Crucifix of the Bleeding Jesus, who merited "all good things for us by His Precious Blood."

2nd. The Medal of Mary with the last message of Jesus "Behold thy Mother," since Mary distributes all graces purchased by the Precious Blood.

3rd. The Medal of Joseph telling us to "Go to Joseph" to whom Jesus and Mary were subject in all their temporal needs.

TRIPLE NOVENA PRAYERS

(TO JESUS, bleeding and dying on the cross, "we beseech Him to help us whom He has redeemed with His Precious Blood.")

Lord, Thou bearest me written in Thy hands in letters of indelible red, which are Thy most Holy Wounds, and to inspire me with confidence Thou gently sayest: "I have written thee in My Hands with the marks of My most Holy Wounds."

Therefore, will I ever say to Thee: "Read, Lord Jesus, read that handwriting and save me through Thy Precious Blood."

O Sacred Heart of Jesus I have asked you for many favors, but I plead for this one.

Take it, place it in Your open Broken Heart, and when the Eternal Father sees it covered with the mantle of YOUR most Precious Blood, He will not refuse it, if, in His infinite and far-seeing wisdom, He sees it is best for my spiritual and temporal welfare. It is not my prayer, but Yours.

(TO MARY: Jesus now makes His last appeal from the cross, "Behold Thy Mother." St. John Vianney, the Cure of Ars, thus recommends the following prayer. "Mark this well; whenever I obtained some grace, it was obtained in this manner, which I never found to fail."

O Mary, Mother of Sorrows, I beseech Thee, by the bitter agony thou didst endure at the foot of the Cross,

Offer to the Eternal Father, in my name, thy beloved Son, Jesus, all covered with Blood and Wounds, in satisfaction for my sins, for the needs of Holy Church the conversion of sinners, the relief of the Souls in Purgatory, and for the special grace I now implore. Amen.

(Here mention your request.)

(TO JOSEPH: All the great saints urge us to "Go to Joseph" with the certain hope, that if the thing asked for be not injurious, either spiritually or temporally, it will be granted.)

O Blessed St. Joseph, tender-hearted father, faithful guardian of Jesus, chaste spouse of the Mother of God,

I pray and beseech Thee to offer to God the Father, His Divine Son bathed in blood on the Cross for sinners, and through the thrice holy name of Jesus, obtain for us from the Eternal Father, the favor we implore. . . .

Imprimatur ✠ Thos. E. Molloy, Bishop of Brooklyn

HOW TO MAKE THE TRIPLE NOVENA

1. Before the Triple Novena Medal (which you should carry or wear) recite the Triple Novena Prayers during nine consecutive days or nine consecutive Fridays.

2. Try to receive Holy Communion at least once during your Triple Novena.

3. Send your Petition to the Precious Blood Shrine where it will share in the daily Mass and in the prayers of our Cloistered Sisters throughout the day and at their Midnight Hour of Prayer.

This package contains President Franklin D.Roosevelts,Bludgeon. One of those weapons used by prehistoric man in defending himself and subduing those who would question his authority or power.

We are sending it to President Franklin D.Roosevelt as a token of freindship and good will from the citizens of Tullahoma.

We ask him to use it freely in the interest of the Common People who are expecting much of him and are perfectly confident of his ability with the cooperation of his freinds in all political parties to restore prosperity,peace and plenty.

The Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President of the United States,
Washington, D. C.

Mr. Dear Mr. President:

I am taking the liberty of sending you eight baking potatoes grown in this northern country where we are striving to increase the production and acreage through utilization of our own fish fertilizer and scientific methods.

I trust that you may feel free to eat one though I fear I presume. They were gathered from farmers in the Lake County Farm Bureau by County Agent Grinager, inspected by the postmaster before packing and I assure you on the word of a World War overseas veteran who is thrilled to see pure patriotism reinstalled in the White House that you may safely eat them.

You would find the potatoes of apple-like flavor and amazingly fine texture. We have I500 acres of uncleared land ideally suited to their growth and we are campaigning to get it under plow. The Department of Agriculture is aiding me.

The West is aflame with new hope dating from March 4. We ex-soldiers see the nation now as the kind we felt we fought for.

Hoping that I may not have presumed in sending this parcel post package to the President under the present circumstances and that the tender will be received in the old fashioned American spirit of friendliness in which it is proferred, I am, with warm regards and best wishes for the President's continued health and vigorous deeds,

Yours,

Radio 22

Incidentally, I am enclosing an item that I wrote for this morning's "Washington Post" on the subject of the President's pronunciation of "conservator." Maybe the White House staff is divided on it. In the Treasury it is the subject of much amusing argument.

Sincerely yours,

Francis de S. Ryan

Galesburg, Illinois

The Wash. Post, March 30.

"CONSERVATOR"

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: President Roosevelt's radio pronunciation of the word "conservator" promises to displace the pronunciation recorded by all but one of the current English dictionaries and by every standard book on pronunciation.

The President placed the accent on the second syllable and sounded the last syllable to rhyme with "for," thus: "Con-ser'-vi-tore."

This pronunciation at once gained wide currency. It is now heard ten times oftener than the one preferred by most of the lexicographers. The radiocasters have adopted it, many of the officials of the Treasury Department have taken it up, and now it is almost a hazard to use any other pronunciation if one wishes to be considered correct.

According to Webster's "New International Dictionary," "The New Standard," "The New Century," and "The Oxford English Dictionary," the word is correctly pronounced with the accent on the first syllable, thus: "Con'-ser-vay-ter." It is also so recorded by Mrs. Josephine Turch Baker, in the "Correct Standardized Pronunciation Dictionary;" by Dr. Frank H. Vizetelly, in "A Desk Book of 25,000 Words Frequently Mispronounced," and by Dr. Ralph Palfry Utter, in "Every-day Pronunciation."

But those who believe—and they are a large number—that there is no authority for the Roosevelt pronunciation are mistaken. There is high authority in abundance.

Dr. Daniel Jones, internationally famed professor of phonetics at the University of London and member of the "New Standard Dictionary's Committee on Disputed Pronunciations," in his new "English Pronouncing Dictionary," records the President's pronunciation of "conservator" as the one in general use among educated people. This dictionary is the standard authority on pronunciation at Columbia University, the University of Wisconsin, the University of Washington, the University of Wyoming, and the Leland Powers School.

As a member of the "Standard's" committee on disputed pronunciations, Dr. Jones voted in favor of recording "conser'-vi-tore" as the preferred pronunciation in the New Standard, and other distinguished members of that committee supported his pronunciation.

The pronunciation of this word has gone through changes before. It seems to have been recorded for the first time in 1755, by Dr. Samuel Johnson, in his "Dictionary of the English Language." Dr. Johnson placed the accent on the third syllable—"con-ser-vay'-ter." This pronunciation, with the accent on the third syllable, was recorded also in 1775, by John Ash, in "The New and Complete Dictionary of the English Language," and by Nathan Bailey, in "An Universal Etymological English Dictionary;" in 1777, by William Perry, in "The Royal Standard English Dictionary," and in 1849, by Benjamin H. Smart, in "A New Critical Pronouncing Dictionary."

The "Encyclopedic Dictionary," edited by Robert Hunter in 1879, recorded the correct pronunciation as "kun-ser'-vi-tur," with the accent on the second syllable. Hunter rhymed the first syllable with "fun" and the last syllable with "fur."

Then came the more modern dictionaries, beginning with Webster, who swung the pronunciation to the form now recorded by all except one—"con'-ser-vay-ter."

But the usage of good speakers is more powerful than the influence of book authorities, and President Roosevelt's pronunciation of the word has become thoroughly established almost overnight. It will doubtless override the authorities and become the accepted usage of careful speakers. Incidentally, it has a pleasing sound. At any rate it has come to stay, and the dictionary revisers will have to give it recognition.

Dear Sir:

I am writing you to ask a special favor. I received a letter from you on the 21st of March, thanking me for President Roosevelt, for a song which I dedicated to him.

I have been trying hard to have the song published but since I am an amateur, I have found much difficulty. For this reason, I have decided to publish the number myself.

I would like very much to have a picture of Mr. Roosevelt on the title-page, and I am wondering if it would be asking to much, to have you secure that permission for me. I am sure it would aid me a great deal in putting my song over. I am enclosing a facsimile of both your letter and the words to the song which I sent to the President.

If the President is willing to aid me in this way, I would appreciate it a great deal, if he would be kind enough to autograph the picture for me.

Thanking you, and also Mr. Roosevelt for the kindness I received before, I remain a loyal friend of President Roosevelt's and a strong booster for the Democratic Party.

President Roosevelt asks me to acknowledge receipt of and thank you for your letter of March 10th and for the song which you have dedicated to him.

It is particularly nice of you to have taken this means of expressing your sentiments.

It is very nicely composed and it is the President's intention to have the piece playto him from time to time.

He lives in Washington;
Look at what this great man's done!
And yet he's just begun.
Everyone knows that he, is hero of the day;
Just listen to the people!
And you'll hear them say:

CHORUS:

We're going to have happy people;
We're going to have working men:
We're going to have everything;
NOW THAT ROOSEVELT'S IN.

We're going to have big blue skies;
Where those black ones have been;
We're going to have prosperity;
NOW THAT ROOSEVELT'S IN.

Just look at his smile;
We're bound to win!
There'll be no corners.
Good times are in! OH!

We're going to have lower taxes;
We're going to have safer banks;
We're going to have peace and freedom;

My dear Miss Mullen:

Your letter of November fifth, addressed to Mrs. Roosevelt, has been referred to me. I regret that it is possible only to repeat what was contained in my letter of October thirty-first.

Although your song is patriotic, the situation we face here is that so many similar requests have been received it is not possible to grant such permission in one case without discriminating against all others. I do hope you will understand and will bear with us.

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

Knowing of your keen interest and enthusiasm for the younger generation of our country, I am sending you a copy of my song entitled: "Now That Roosevelt's In", which I have written and dedicated to your husband, our President.

Soon after the inauguration I was happy to receive a letter of thanks from Mr. Roosevelt. Since that time I have been trying to have my number published. But, as you must know, it is very difficult for an amateur to break into the music world. For this reason, I have decided to print copies of the song myself.

I was hoping to obtain permission to have President Roosevelt's

I am eighteen years old and have just finished high-school in June. My father is dead and since I have no one to aid or back me, I am wondering if you would be so kind as to help me obtain President Roosevelt's permission to print his likeness on my music.

I have read and heard so much about your kindness and understanding for our people that I hope this will not be asking too much.

Thanking you, I remain a sincere friend and great admirer of you, and your family, hoping God will bless them, your husband, and you,

Dear Mr. President,

After listening Sunday night to your calm, courageous voice speaking to my husband and me at our fire side, simultaneously with the other homes of this vast nation, recognized with the rest of the country a Leader great enough to bring sanity out of chaos and restore the nation's birthright.

The following day I made the enclosed editorial cartoon and have found the courage to send this tribute to you. Most cordially yours you shall need more than the protection that all the bodyguards in the world could give you. And so I am sending you a medal, little in size but it can give you more protection than anything in the world. It is a medal of The Blessed Mother of our Lord. She will protect you, for it promotes more love and admiration to her. Please wear it.

I am a girl, 14 years old and in the 8th grade of school, but I have love and high respect for the coming president of the United States. Both my mother and father have always been Democrats, with special admiration for the late President Wilson, and I also will be a Democrat when I am of age to vote.

Very respectfully

My Medal

'Tis only a scrap of silv'ry ore,
Yet more than treasure trove,
For Mary herself has given to me
Proof of this sign of love.
Her Image is there with outstretched arms,
Cross and the Hearts Divine
A Heart that is pierced with sharpest blade,
Thorns do the other twine.

'Tis only a scrap of silv'ry ore,
Mark of a Mother's care;
And on it she graved in simple words,
Simply a Mother's pray'r:
"O Mary, conceived without a stain,
Void of our sin's decree,
Pray for us now and ever more
Having recourse to thee."

'Tis only a scrap of silv'ry ore
Hanging upon my breast;
But with it come peace and golden joy,
Mercy and final rest.
So leave to the world its tinsel wealth,
Power and groping lore;
But let me retain my tiny scrap,
Scrap of the silv'ry ore.
