Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt
Washington, D. C.

My dear first lady:

Under separate cover I am sending by registered mail a small pkg. containing a paper and kerchief, explanation - the paper is a facsimile of the Ulster County Gazette-I have had it in my personal possession for over 50 years, how long it has been in our family I do not know. My grandfather was a veteran of the Civil War, which can be verified by the records - his name, Charles Gates, Unionville, Mont. I am sending the paper in the hope it may find a place in the President's Library. Had intended to sell it to provide myself with some dental and medical care I need, however, when I took it to a man here considered authority on such things, he said it had no monetary value, was eager and willing to accept it as a gift, though.

I am 66 years old and feel am near the close of my life, have no one to leave anything to.

The kerchief was given to my sister by her mother-in-law, both are dead long ago. I remember my sister telling me it belonged to a lady-in-waiting and is very old - however, that ends my data and, of course, removes any historic value. I am enclosing two clippings, one from an Oregonian some 20 or 25 years ago, and the other of more recent date.

Trusting this will not displease you and with my very best wishes for the health of our truly great President and yourself,

I am
Very Sincerely

Letter to Pres. together with copy of his poster which War Dept. will release when Hitler is defeated.---10/2/44 Pres. sent following reply: "I think you have done yourself proud in that 'delayed action' Uncle Sam poster which the War Department will issue after we have smashed Hitler. It will convey to the nation just the message we need to emphasize, which is that there must be no cessation in the war effort until the Japs have been beaten to their knees. Best of all, your hand has lost none of its cunning. The poster is an artistic triumph and will have an honored place at Hyde Park. I am grateful, too, for the personal inscription. By the way, I congratulate you on your resourcefulness in saving model hire. Your method suggests Yankee forebears." Poster sent to Library - Series "A".

Letter to Gen. Watson, saying that Mrs. Myrtle Evans of Los Angeles, Calif., is now in Washington with a gift for the President. The gift if The Lord's Prayer worked on linen by Mrs. Evans and mounted in a gold frame. She is eager to present this to President in person, but if this cannot be arranged, writer hopes it will be acceptable. States that his office has taken up this matter with Gen. Watson and any arrangements made will be appreciated if Cong. Flannagan's office is called, so Mrs. Evans may be notified. Attached to file is memo for Gen. Watson, from William Simmons, 9/29/44, stating that he accepted the gift from Mrs. Evans, because General was busy and she was pressed for time. She asks that picture be presented to Pres. with message that she wants him to know "this is a gift from the poor people, who love him just as much as the rich. On the way across the country, it was shown to the poor class of people and they all thought it would be a fine thing to give to the President". --- The framed Prayer has gone to Hyde Park Liberary "A".

Your Excellancy, the President of the United States,
Franklyn Delano Roosevelt,
White House, Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

I am taking the liberty, Mr. President, of offering you as a gift the enclosed pin - a mathematical problem.

In my 46 years of residence in our wonderful country, most of the time spent as a jewelry designer, I have come to the conclusion that we Americans are always eager to accept something of original value.

As an explanation, the first of the "4s" stands for fourth term, and the balance for the year "44". It can also symbolize 3 x 4 or 12 years of a successful President. The emblem can, of course, be used on banners and flags.

Very respectfully yours,

The Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt
The White House
Washington, D. C.

My Dear Mr. President:

I am taking the liberty of sending you under separate cover a portrait of you which I drew something more than two years ago using a familiar photograph as the model. My picture was reproduced in the program for the Jackson Day dinner given in Detroit on March 7, 1942.

I took great pleasure in making this portrait and I am forwarding it to you now as a token of the respect and admiration in which you are held by one of the hundreds of thousands of Michigan voters who will cast their ballots for you on November 7th next.

Sincerely yours,

Rudolph Pacheco

CURRAN, Joseph
President, National Maritime Union of America,
NYC.,N.Y.,
Oct. 23, 1944.

Writes the President saying they have quoted the President extensively in the enclosed pamphlet, dealing with a postwar program for the maritime industry, because they believe that the President symbolizes those forces in government striving to attain a policy of close cooperation among labor, industry and government. States that the President's comments on the pamphlet "After the War - What?" will be appreciated.------
Mr. Hassett, Oct. 26th wrote to Mr. Curran thanking him on behalf of the President and saying he shall bring this pamphlet and Mr. Curran's letter to the President's attention at the earliest opportunity and that he knew the President would be grateful to Mr. Curran for making it available to him.
