Dear Sam and Dorothy:

It was nice of you both to send me those beautiful handkerchiefs and I am having them put away to be used only on special occasions.

As you can imagine, I have been just a little busy preparing my message to Congress.

Hope you enjoyed your trip and that I shall see you very soon.

Very sincerely yours,

Judge and Mrs. Samuel I Rosenman,

Dear President Roosevelt: I am taking the liberty of sending you one of my books, entitled "Crosscuts."

This story was written in a logging camp on the West coast of British Columbia where my husband was working at the time.

We "listened in" and heard what you said at the Democratic convention. Your words came to us clearly and distinctly. At that time your name was on our lips, now it is in our hearts.

May God bless you and yours.

Should you visit the great Dam that is to be built at the head of the Grand Coulee, four miles from our little home on the Sage brush flat, it would give us great pleasure to clasp your hand and bid you welcome.

Trusting you will be given health and strength to continue your great work, and that you and yours will live long to enjoy the fruits of your labor.

With every good wish to Mrs. Roosevelt and yourself.

Writes Miss LeHand re memo sent by her Jan. 9th and to previous corres. concerning a rug offered the President and Mrs. Roosevelt by Dr. and Madame H. H. Kung as a New Year's remembrance. Enclosed draft letter of thanks.
--- Letter sent Jan. 16, 1934, signed by President, reads as follows:

"It has given me much pleasure to receive, through the courteous instrumentality of Dr. Sze, the rug which you and Madam Kung have so considerately sent to Mrs. Roosevelt and me on the occasion of the New Year. Both Mrs. Roosevelt and I will long treasure the rug, not only for its blue and gold beauty, but also as a reminder of your thoughtfulness. It may interest you to know that I find the rug particularly charming in that it recalls to me one which my grandfather, who once lived at Hankow, owned many years ago. With cordial regards to Madame Kung and yourself, in which Mrs. Roosevelt joins me, believe me - Very sincerely yours, /s/ F.D.R."

Nutley Barber Embroiders Copy Of NRA Blue Eagle for Roosevelt

An embroidered reproduction of the Blue Eagle insignia of the NRA is being sent to President Roosevelt by Ernesto Rapana, barber of 86 Center street, Nutley.

The gift is Rapana's own work, taking him forty days to complete. It is 22 by 28 inches, and 2,500 yards of embroidery silk were used in the making.

The barber-needleworker was born in South Italy, and has been a resident of this country twenty-two years, eleven years of this time in Nutley. He has been an enthusiastic supporter of the President and of the NRA from the beginning, being among the first in Nutley to sign the blanket code.

Rapana is an ardent devotee of the arts, being an accomplished musician and vocalist. In Italy he was well-known as a dramatic actor, and he still treads the boards. He will play the dramatic lead in "Le Morte Civile," (The Civil Death), which will be presented shortly at Falcon Hall, Newark.

Rapana is honorary president of the Italian War Veterans of Montclair and honorary orator of the Nutley group. He is also orator of the Nutley Chapter, Sons of Italy.

Dear Sir:

As one of your admirers, I am sending you a cheap frame of obsidian arrowheads. These arrowheads are not genuine Indian arrowheads. I have discovered the art of chipping such stones. I thought perhaps you would be pleased with a souvenir of this kind from California. If you do not care for them, you are at liberty to pass them to some of your friends whom might admire them. I am a poor man and they are all I have to send you as an appreciation of what you have done for this nation and I hope you will receive them with the same spirit as they are being sent.

I remain,
Yours Sincerely,

My dear Colonel:

I am sending you under separate cover a copy of one of my books, ''Eve and the Evangelist, '' issued in 19o8, twenty five years ago.

The work is dated 21o8.

My excuse for sending the work is that it rather clearly out lined the New Deal of today. The causes for change were rather strik ingly summed. up.

The book is of the ''Looking Backward ''type. It forecast the Russian Revolution , the World War and the resultant chaos.

The date fixeddfor the opening of the Red out-break is but slightly at variance with the actual date. In a sense the accuracy of many of the forecasts is almost uncanny.

On account of its novel character, is departure from the sterotyped and its prophetic character I believe the book will interest both you and the President.

Most Sincerely,

Harry E.Rice.

Dear Mr. President:

You have, no doubt, received a hand carved Orange Wood Walking Cane which was made by a negro Emergency Relief Worker. This negro, J. G. Robinson, 734 Bently St., Orlando, Florida was born in Jacksonville, Florida, is 68 years of age, belongs to the Eposcopal Church, Masons, K. of P's and the Elks. He only completed the fourth grade at school and is a Cabinet Maker by trade. He says he carved the entire cane with a small pen knife about three and one half inches long.

He wanted you to have this cane for your Birthday.

Dear President,

December 19, 1933.

This is a girl of twelve years old and I'm in the Eighth Grade of the Holy Rosary School and my name is Josephine Papisardi and I'm the girl who is writing this letter to you. We are good of health and hope your family are as well as we are. I am writing you this letter because my father and mother don't know how to read or write. My father and mother are sending you this little present for if he had more money he would even send you a gold statue.

I thank you for your kindness, for if you wouldn't come up we would have lost our little house, well now we thank God and you next that we still have our little house. Well we thank you for all the things you have done to the U. S. and all the people of the U. S. like to protect you because you are the second god of the U. S.

Well there is nothing else to say I'll enclose this letter with many kisses to your family. And my family wishes your family a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

Some time ago, I sent you a letter stating that I was sending you a sketch, of which I did not send at the time, as I had been trying to take a picture from same, also showing to my different friends, as this is the first time I ever tried such.

As this picture took me, I felt that it would be good idea to send it to you; not for great work on the sketch, but to give you an idea; that you can see for you self that God has give me a strong foresight. I have a number of things I would like to draw before you, just as plain as this, that I feel you could develop into large scenes of more that would aid in this depression.

Since then each Italian Ambassador, Mrs Longfellow has kindly co-operated with me - another pretty prized letter I own, is from President Theodore Roosevelt when my son was in the war - one by returned to us he highly decorated for our own Government - and again from name was honored by Mr Douglas Robinson, whose death I lament - another link is that my

Senator Copeland is a neighbor from Rockland Co - before my health sent me to the "city of sunshine" - He is a very kind friend, and hope to welcome him here some day - at present all my days and nights are chuck-a-block working to help the unemployed still here, particularly those of the "white collar" class - so few jobs often open to them - after this preamble, let me hope that when I am again in Washington and have the pleasure of actually meeting you, some faint idea of who I am may come to your memory - God bless you and your dear Mrs President for the great help you are giving our nation - Sincerely yours

Rec'd Thanks

Jan 22, 1924

Dear Mr. President.

While I was at the Post Office today, the clerk at the window asked me to help an aged woman to write, and I found she was trying to write on a card which is intended for you, so I wrote it out while she dictated, only added her address, which she didn't want me to do.

The package contained a pair of white woolen socks which she knitted herself and I am very sure they must have taken her a t-very long time.

I am asking you if you would be kind enough to do so, to write this woman a small note of thanks, as she must be over seventy years of age, and she is alone, but her heart is for you, and she would be very happy and surprised because she didn't want anybody to know she did it.

I hope her kindness and thoughtfulness are appreciated by you.

Her name and address is:-

Mrs Harriet E. Robertson,
1270 State Street
New Haven, Conn.

I am hoping this letter reaches you, so you can write soon to this feeble woman.

My dear Mr. President:

Under separate cover I am sending you an expression of my regards for what you have done for our country. I made it myself.

When you became Chief Executive you found our Nation in about as many different kinds of political, financial and economic pieces as are to be found in my gift of four hundred and seventy eight pieces.

You gathered the pieces together, cemented them in your own inimical far sighted way, with the result we have again a united country, bound by faith and confidence in you, a nation with unbounded vista of a prosperous year and a rosate future.

My gift is emblematic of your efforts. I gathered them here and there, put them together into a gift which I hope you will ever cherish.

Thanking God that we have such a leader as you, and wishing you unlimited success in your future efforts to make these states of ours the most prosperous and peace-loving and progressive in the world, I am,

Dear Sir:

Under separate cover I sent to you,yesterday, one copy of the latest edition of the "BANKERS' ALMANAC and YEAR BOOK".

Would you be kind enough,Sir, to add this volume to the volumes for the President which I brought to the White House in April last.

I am also enclosing herewith a reprint of a review of this issue from "The Morning Post" (London), Dec.16,1933, and would kindly ask you to hand this reprint to the President, as it shows in a very comprehensive form all the information to be obtained from the volume.

Thanking you Sir for the courtesy extended to me in the past, I am with the expression of my highest esteem.

The Bankers' Almanac

The Bankers' Almanac and Year Book, published jointly by Messrs. Thomas Skinner and Co. as Proprietors, and Waterlow and Sons, Ltd., has reached its eighty-ninth year with the 1933-34 edition. The contents of this indispensable banking directory are too well known, as regards their broad features, to require enumeration, but in such a monumental work, designed to provide as complete a reference book as possible, it may be that some users who normally consult certain sections may be unaware of the amount of less frequently required, but none the less valuable, contents elsewhere in the book. The banker, of course, will be acquainted with the world-wide directory of banking telegraphic addresses, and the geographical index to banking facilities abroad, or the denominations and par values of the notes and coins of the world. But does he know that the Almanac will tell him the addresses of the Public Notaries in London, or the highest and lowest prices of Consols in each year since 1823; the names of Canadian and U.S.A. Solicitors and Barristers and dealers in securities; or a summary which enables the successor of any amalgamated or absorbed bank in this country to be seen at a glance? There is also a vast amount of other miscellaneous information which may be wanted at some time or other, and not be readily ascertainable elsewhere. Particularly useful is the "Annual Record of Important Events," which goes back to 1866.

Dear President:

I drew a picture of you and will hope you will forgive me for the picture has little resemblance of yours sir but I was compelled to send it. I thought you might help me. We are now in state of aggravation I am from family because of little work. My father works only a few hours every other week, and I only get no for an answer when I go for a job. I was only seventeen on January eighth last but I have ideas and things of that sort sometimes called ambitions. Now to come down to the point I read in the news paper that you founder of the Warm Springs Sanitarium or hospital for Infantile paralysis and I thought you may consider my plan and that is drawing pictures I mean educational pictures for the kiddies as a sort of entertainment for them. I know it is a crazy idea but you are the only one who may help us now. Please think this over sir, please.

I am five feet eight and a half inches tall. Brown hair and eyes. And an unblemished character. The pictures I mentioned above is pictures say of a trip to foreign lands and tell them the story along with the pictures. It would help the kiddies mentaly and help them forget their sickness as the pictures would attract their attention. It was this idea and the present condition at home that made me send you this picture. I guess you think of me being kind of nervy.

But please give my idea a little consideration.

I am sorry to have taken so much of your time by writing a long letter.
So in closing I hope some day to meet you Mr. President,

One of your patriots,

Harold Kadi,

Dear Sir

with this Mail I am sending you a walking cain. and will say that it is a very rare cain. not as wood but as to being straight. it is California Manzineta wood which is very seldom found straight. a man could hike over the Mountians for 5 or 10 years and not find a straight Manzineta cain. I wanted to send it for your Birthday but did not get to it. as I should get home from work to late
