NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

New York State Bar Association publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207.

JOSHUA B. GRUNER, ESQ.

Joshua B. Gruner graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of Delaware in 1997 and received an Advanced Honors Certificate upon graduation. While at the University of Delaware, he founded the school's Pre-Law Society.

Mr. Gruner attended Hofstra University School of Law from 1997–2000. He served as the Managing Editor of the Family & Conciliation Courts Review (now known as the Family Courts Review). Before graduating in 2000, Mr. Gruner participated in the NITA Trial Advocacy Program, assisted in the creation of a Family Law Clinic and interned for Nassau Supreme Court Justice Gabriel Kohn. Upon graduating, he received the Distinguished Service to the School Award for all of his contributions to the school, particularly in the areas of family law.

Mr. Gruner was admitted to practice law in New York in January 2001. After graduating, he immediately began working in various areas of law, including real estate, corporate litigation and all phases of matrimonial and family law. In 2005, he became an associate at the firm of Gassman & Keidel (predecessor to Gassman Baiamonte Gruner, P.C.) and since that time has focused exclusively in the fields of matrimonial and family law. Mr. Gruner became a partner of the firm on October 1, 2015.

He is currently a member of the Nassau County Bar Association, where he was appointed as a member of the Judiciary Committee and WE CARE Advisory Board, and the New York State Bar Association, where he was appointed Co-Chair of the Membership and Long Range Planning Committees. For many years, he has been asked to assist in teaching the Family Law with Skills course offered at Hofstra University School of Law. He completed the intensive week-long trial program offered by the National Family Law Trial Institute. Mr. Gruner has been recognized nationally and state-wide as a family law attorney by the American Institute of Family Law Attorneys (2014 & 2015, Under 40 Client Satisfaction Award), National Academy of Family Law Attorneys (2014 Top 10 Under 40), N.Y. "Super Lawyers" (2013 Rising Star), and New York Metro's Top Lawyers (Rising Star 2015).

WILLARD H. DASILVA, ESQ.

Willard H. DaSilva,* senior member of the "AV"-rated DaSilva & Hilowitz LLP, was a veteran matrimonial law practitioner in New City, New York. He was one of fewer than 100 attorneys in the United States invited to be a Diplomat of the American College of Family Trial Lawyers. His biography appears in Who's Who in America, and for more than 25 years he has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America. He has been listed in New York Magazine's Best Lawyers in the New York Metropolitan Area and in the New York Times as a "Super Lawyer." He was a past President of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, New York Chapter, and editor emeritus of the ABA's Family Advocate magazine; editor emeritus of the New York State Bar Association Journal; Chairman of the Board of Editors of the nationally published Matrimonial Strategist; and author of New York Matrimonial Practice, published by Thomson Reuters-West. He was a former Council Member of the American Bar Association's Section of Family Law, a Master and Past President of the New York Family Law American Inn of Court, a former member of the New York State Bar Association's House of Delegates, and past Chair of the Association's General Practice Section. His extensive lecturing schedule to judges and lawyers included seminars sponsored by bar associations and civic organizations throughout the United States, Canada and Europe.

Mr. DaSilva, a magna cum laude graduate of New York University and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, received his law degree at Columbia University Law School. He has been widely quoted in the New York Times, Newsday, USA Today, Newsweek, U.S. News & World Report and the New York

Law Journal, which has referred to him as the “Dean of Matrimonial Lawyers.” He also appeared on national network and syndicated television and radio programs and “talk” shows.

* Deceased 2017.
