

Peter E. Anandranistakis

Qualico Developments (Winnipeg) Ltd.

Peter is Legal Counsel at the Qualico Winnipeg Law Department and deals with a variety of land development matters, including areas ranging from acquisitions and subdivisions to condominiums and conveyancing, and everything in between. Peter articulated and practiced at MLT Aikins LLP in Winnipeg for over six years after his Call to the Bar in 2015, before leaving for in-house legal practice opportunities.

Peter has been involved in the Manitoba Bar Association over his legal career through various roles, such as representative to council and previously as the Chair of the Manitoba Business Law Subsection, and now as part of the Manitoba Real Property Subsection. Peter is also involved in the Canadian Bar Association through the Well-being Sub-committee, as he believes lawyers should remain committed to excellent work and high professional standards, but in a sustainable and fulfilling manner.

Prior to attending Robson Hall for his J.D., where he also served as President of the Manitoba Law Students' Association in his third year, Peter also attended the University of Manitoba for his B.A. (Hons.) in Political Science.
