Dear Mr. President:

Let me assure you of Fluor's full support for your decisive stand on events in the Middle East. You can count on us to rally others behind your policies.

Our company has a long history of work experience in the Arab world, with business contacts at the highest levels. We stand ready to furnish all possible assistance and resources to our government.

Given Fluor's capabilities in the hydrocarbon sector worldwide, we are advising leaders in energy-producing countries that we are prepared to serve them on an emergency basis, to help expand their production facilities.

We are proud of your strength and commitment in this crisis, Mr. President, and offer you our unstinting cooperation.

Respectfully yours,

D. S. Tappan Jr.

Dave
Dear Mr. Tappan:

Thank you for your letter of August 8, 1990 to the President offering your Corporation's support and assistance to the Administration on the Gulf crisis. Both are much appreciated. We have taken the liberty of forwarding a copy of your letter to our relevant experts so they might avail themselves of your expertise and skills.

Again, thank you for your interest and offer of assistance on this issue of serious concern to our national security.

Sincerely,

Brent
