Honorable George Bush
President of the United States
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave.
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear President Bush,

Ronald Reagan was one of our greatest Presidents. However, one area lacking success during his tenure was the Middle East. People I speak to have increasing concerns regarding the gross violations of Human Rights inflicted by the Israeli's against Palestinians with American aid.

The general feeling is that we should withhold all aid to Israel until they stop the beatings, expulsions and murder of Palestinians.

The money saved will go a long way to help reduce our deficit problems and we will renew our image throughout the free world as a Nation against all terrorism.

If there is anything I can do to help, please advise.

With every good wish,

Dennis O'Doherty
Former Assemblyman
N. Y. State Legislature
