United States Department of State

Washington, D.C. 20520

January 10, 1991.

Dear Mr. Jacobs:

On behalf of President Bush thank you for your correspondence of December 19, 1990 pertaining to the UN Security Council Resolution on the occupied territories.

On December 20 the Security Council unanimously adopted Resolution 681. During the protracted consultations on this resolution, the United States successfully excised a number of highly objectionable elements in the draft text circulated by the Palestine Liberation Organization and some others. This resolution rejects linking the Arab-Israeli conflict and Iraq's invasion of Kuwait. The separate Security Council President's statement notes that the Arab-Israeli conflict is unique and must be addressed independently and on its own merits. The statement also reflects long-standing U.S. views on an international peace conference on the Arab-Israeli conflict.

The resolution deplores the Government of Israel's decision to resume deportations of Palestinians from the occupied territories. The United States is deeply concerned about such deportations, as Secretary Baker made clear to Prime Minister Shamir in Washington during his recent visit. The United States has condemned the violence directed at Israeli citizens, in particular the recent stabbing incidents. We have also made clear our concern about excessive use of force in response to recent violence in the occupied territories.

Our vote on United Nations Security Council Resolution 681 reflects these concerns and is consistent with long-standing U.S. policy on the Middle East. There is no change in USG policy on Jerusalem, the applicability of the Fourth Geneva Convention to the territories occupied by Israel since 1967, on concern at the deterioration in the occupied territories, and on our support for the role of the Secretary General in continuing to attempt to ensure the safety and protection of Palestinian civilians.

Your thoughts are appreciated during this crucial period for U.S. foreign policy in the United Nations.

Sincerely,

John S. Wolf
