Dear Mr. Stout:

Thank you for your kind letter. I was heartened to know that I can count on your support.

As you know, we face an unprecedented opportunity for peace in the Middle East. To defer the question of loan guarantees to Israel at this time, I believe, not only furthers the prospects for peace between Israel and the Arab countries but also enhances the worldwide interest in promoting lasting stability throughout the region.

Other areas will present us with challenges in the coming months -- Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union certainly among them. Rest assured, the Administration is working very hard to help lessen the hardships that are faced by these brave people as they seek to establish democracy where tyranny once reigned.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

^A

Dear Mr. President:

You are to be commended for your integrity and political courage in standing firm against the awesome pressures of the Pro-Israel lobbyists.

I would fully support your veto of the proposed ten billion dollar loan-guarantee to the State of Israel before year-end in the interest of giving the Middle East peace process a chance.

I am confident that the vast majority of the American people stand with you on this issue.

Sincerely,
