SUBJECT:

I would vote against. We are not yet ready for presidential speeches on the Middle East--our review is still going on, and King Hussein of Jordan will be arriving a few days after this gathering. Also, I would think Jewish-Americans require more presidential attention right now on this issue than do Arab-Americans.

President George Bush
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Bush:

We called your office today to inquire about the status of our invitation to you of November 28 to address our Sixth National Convention. We had received a reply to our invitation from Mr. Irastorza before the inauguration (photocopies enclosed.) We were advised by Mr. Benedi in your scheduling office that they unfortunately have no record of the invitation. We are hopeful, however, that at this late date you will consider our request in earnest. Our members and guests would be delighted to see you and hear your remarks.

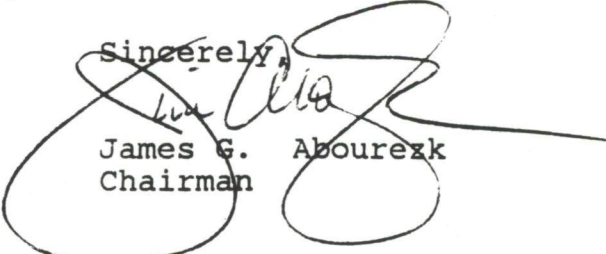

The American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee's (ADC) Convention, "Breakthroughs, Achievements & Hopes" will be held April 13-16, 1989. We would be honored if you would attend and be the keynote speaker. If you are able to attend, we could accommodate your schedule to speak at any of the five main events.

The convention will take place at the Marriott Crystal Gateway Hotel in Arlington, Virginia. Last year's convention was attended by over 4,000 people, participating in different workshops and meal functions at one time or another. It is without question the most highly anticipated Arab-American gathering in the United States simply because of the sheer numbers of people who come to Washington. Of course, you would be welcome to attend any other activities at the convention that may be of interest to you.

ADC was founded eight years ago as a civil rights organization focusing on combating defamation in the media and discrimination in public life. I have enclosed an introductory brochure. not sent

I hope that you will give this invitation your serious consideration and let us hear from you as soon as possible. If you would like further information please contact me or my assistant, Linda Donnelly.

Sincerely,

James G. Abourezk
Chairman
