THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

Dear Mr. Comay:

Thank you for your kind invitation to speak before your Board of Governors meeting. Unfortunately, I am unable to honor your request as I will be engaged in preparations for several Presidential visits and meetings abroad. May I suggest that you contact Dr. Richard N. Haass, Special Assistant to the President and Senior Director for Near East South Asia, to address your group in my stead.

Thank you again for your invitation. I am aware of and appreciate your strong support during the Persian Gulf crisis.

Sincerely,

Mr. Sholom D. Comay

General Brent Scowcroft
Assistant to the President for
National Security Affairs
National Security Council
Old Executive Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20506

Dear General Scowcroft:

On behalf of the American Jewish Committee, it gives us great pleasure to invite you to address our Board of Governors meeting in Washington D.C. Approximately one hundred of our key leaders from across the country will spend March 11 and 12 deliberating over a wide range of issues of particular concern to the American Jewish community.

We are hopeful that you will be able to address us on March 12, at some point between 2:00 and 3:30 p.m. in Room 450 of the Old Executive Office Building, on those compelling international issues of great interest to all of us, including the Persian Gulf War, the U.S.-Israel relationship, the post-war Middle East, and developments in the Soviet Union. We especially look forward to the opportunity to publicly commend the Administration for its response to Iraq's naked act of aggression against Kuwait, a position we have unambiguously supported since August 2nd.

As you may know, the American Jewish Committee is the pioneer human relations organization in the United States. Founded in 1906, it has been in the forefront helping combat bigotry, promote human rights for all, defend democratic values and seek their realization in American public policy.

Thank you in advance for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully,
