

189855

F0004-02

THIS DOCUMENT IS NOT TO BE COPIED OR REMOVED WITHOUT APPROVAL OF THE ORM DIRECTOR'S OFFICE.

DATE 920724

PLEASE NOTE

A copy of the attached document has been certified as true, accurate and identical to this document as of this date. The copy may be used as evidence in a court case.

Therefore, please do not alter, modify, or add any papers or writings to it.

THIS DOCUMENT IS NOT TO BE COPIED OR REMOVED WITHOUT APPROVAL OF THE ORM DIRECTOR'S OFFICE.

189855

F0004-02

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Brock:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Brock Adams
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Dan:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Daniel K. Akaka
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Lloyd:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A large, bold, handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to be "G. H. W. Bush".

The Honorable Lloyd Bentsen
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

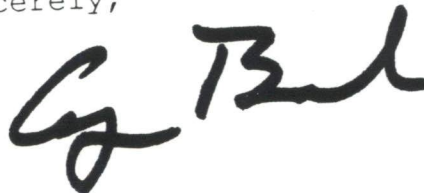

Dear Jeff:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Jeff Bingaman
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Kit:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'CSB', written in a cursive, stylized manner.

The Honorable Christopher S. Bond
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Rudy:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Rudy Boschwitz
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Bill:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush". The signature is stylized with a large, bold "G" and a cursive "Bush".

The Honorable Bill Bradley
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

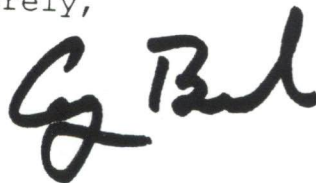

Dear Richard:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush". The signature is stylized with a large, looped "G" and a cursive "Bush".

The Honorable Richard H. Bryan
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Dale:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "G. H. W. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Dale Bumpers
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Conrad:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "G. H. W. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Conrad Burns
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear John:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable John H. Chafee
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Dan:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Dan Coats
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Thad:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Thad Cochran
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Bill:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable William S. Cohen
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

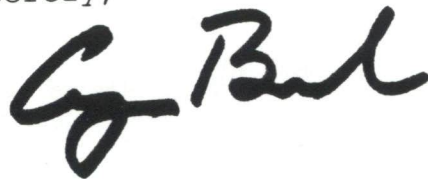

Dear Alan:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Alan Cranston
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Al:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Alfonse M. D'Amato
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
November 15, 1990

Dear Jack:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'JD' or 'John C. Danforth' in a stylized, cursive script.

The Honorable John C. Danforth
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

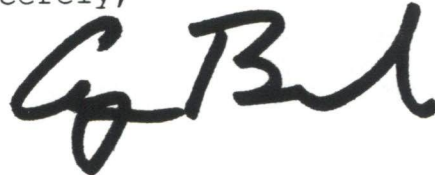

Dear Dennis:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Dennis DeConcini
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

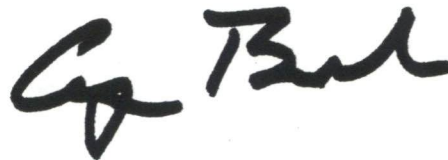

Dear Alan:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Alan J. Dixon
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

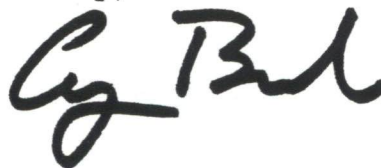

Dear Chris:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "CJ Dodd", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Christopher J. Dodd
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Bob:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'RD', written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Robert Dole
Republican Leader
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Dave:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Dave Durenberger
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Wendell:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush".

The Honorable Wendell H. Ford
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

congratulations on your leadership election G

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

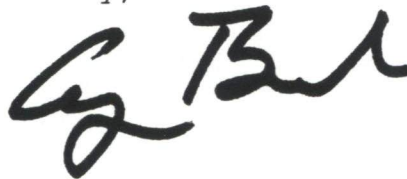

Dear Wyche:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Wyche Fowler, Jr.
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

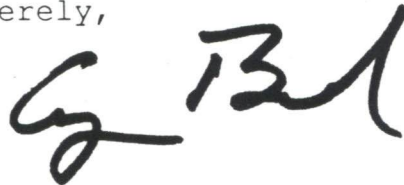

Dear John:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable John Glenn
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Al:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letter of the last name being a large, stylized "B".

The Honorable Albert Gore, Jr.
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Slade:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Slade Gorton
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Bob:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Bob Graham
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Phil:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Phil Gramm
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

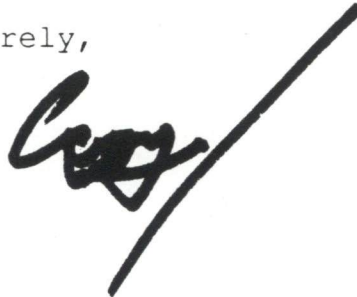

Dear Chuck:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'C. Grassley', followed by a long, diagonal slash mark.

The Honorable Charles E. Grassley
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

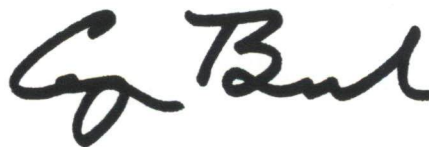

Dear Tom:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letter of the last name being a large, stylized "B".

The Honorable Tom Harkin
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Orrin:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Orrin G. Hatch
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Nancy:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Nancy Landon Kassebaum
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

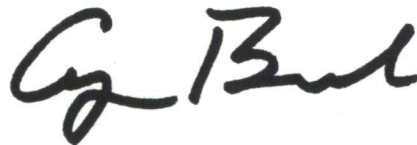

Dear Joe:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letter of the last name being a large, stylized "B".

The Honorable Joseph I. Lieberman
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Mitch:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "G. H. W. Bush", with a long diagonal stroke extending from the bottom right.

The Honorable Mitch McConnell
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear John:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable John Heinz
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Howard:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Howard M. Metzenbaum
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Dan:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'D. Inouye', with a stylized flourish at the end.

The Honorable Daniel K. Inouye
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

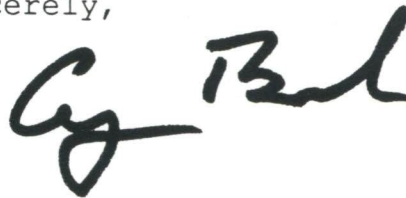

Dear Jim:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", is written below the word "Sincerely,".

The Honorable James M. Jeffords
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Bob:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your leadership on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A stylized, handwritten signature in black ink, likely belonging to George H. W. Bush, consisting of a large, sweeping 'G' followed by a horizontal stroke.

The Honorable Robert W. Kasten, Jr.
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

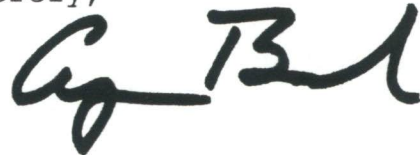

Dear Ted:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Ag B-1", written in a cursive, stylized script.

The Honorable Edward M. Kennedy
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Bob:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", is positioned below the word "Sincerely,".

The Honorable J. Robert Kerrey
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear John:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable John F. Kerry
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

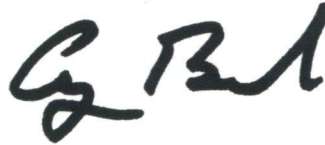

Dear Herb:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", is written below the word "Sincerely,".

The Honorable Herbert Kohl
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Frank:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Frank R. Lautenberg
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Pat:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your leadership on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'PJL', written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Patrick J. Leahy
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

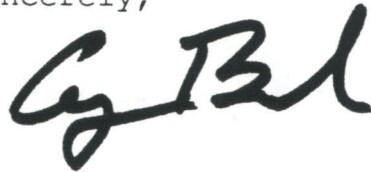

Dear Carl:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Carl Levin
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Trent:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "G. H. W. Bush", followed by a long diagonal slash.

The Honorable Trent Lott
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

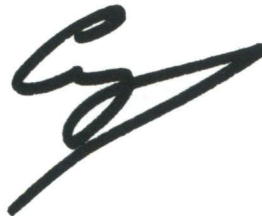

Dear Dick:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'R. Lugar', written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Richard G. Lugar
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

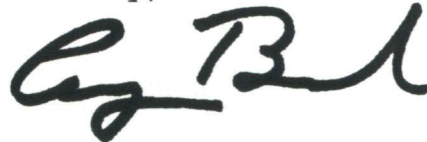

Dear Connie:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Connie Mack
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear John:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable John McCain
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Barbara:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Barbara A. Mikulski
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear George:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'GJM', written in a cursive style.

The Honorable George J. Mitchell
Majority Leader
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

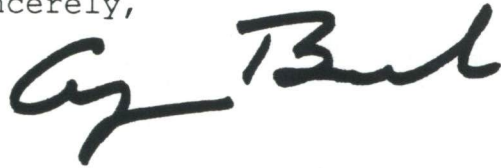

Dear Pat:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "D. P. Moynihan", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Daniel Patrick Moynihan
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Frank:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Frank H. Murkowski
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Don:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Don Nickles
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Sam:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", is written over the typed word "Sincerely,".

The Honorable Sam Nunn
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Bob:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "G. H. W. Bush", with a long diagonal stroke extending from the bottom right of the signature.

The Honorable Bob Packwood
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Claiborne:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Claiborne Pell
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

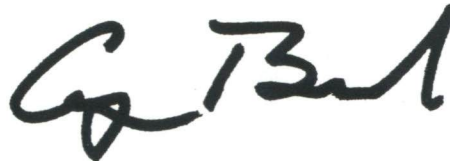

Dear Harry:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush". The signature is stylized with a large, sweeping "G" and a bold, cursive "Bush".

The Honorable Harry Reid
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Don:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Donald W. Riegle, Jr.
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

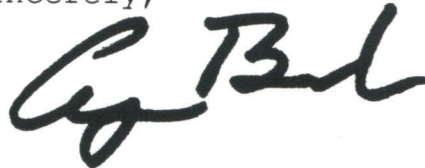

Dear Chuck:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Charles S. Robb
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Warren:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "G. H. W. Bush", with a long, sweeping horizontal stroke extending to the right.

The Honorable Warren Rudman
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Terry:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Terry Sanford
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

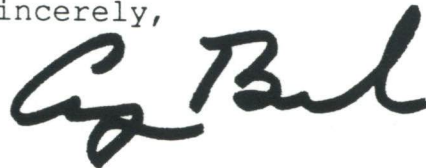

Dear Paul:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Paul S. Sarbanes
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

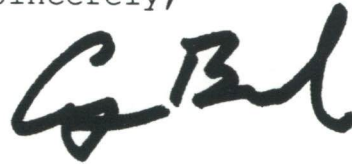

Dear Jim:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Jim Sasser
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

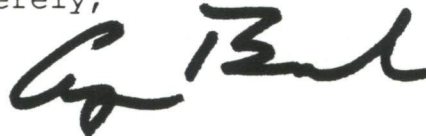

Dear Richard:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "George Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Richard C. Shelby
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

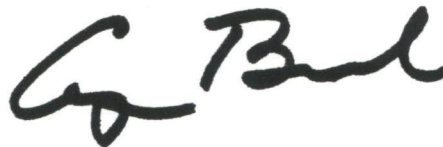

Dear Paul:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Paul Simon
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Al:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be "G. H. W. Bush", with a long diagonal stroke extending from the bottom right of the signature.

The Honorable Alan K. Simpson
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Arlen:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "G. H. W. Bush", with a long, sweeping diagonal stroke extending from the bottom right of the signature.

The Honorable Arlen Specter
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Ted:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Ted Stevens
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Strom:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "G. H. W. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Strom Thurmond
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

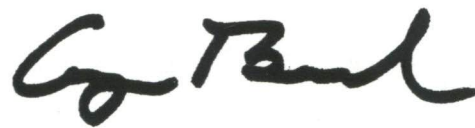

Dear Malcolm:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. Bush", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Malcolm Wallop
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear John:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

The Honorable John Warner
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Pete:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

G. H. W.

Ag

The Honorable Pete Wilson
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 1990

Dear Tim:

I wanted to take a moment to express my personal appreciation for your vote at the end of session on the Egyptian Foreign Military Sales (FMS) debt proposal.

Our support for Egypt at this critical moment is essential to the success of the international effort to isolate and contain Iraq. Egypt is a vital partner in Operation Desert Shield, sharing the risk with our soldiers. Egypt's troubled economy is also bearing an unexpected burden because of the Gulf crisis. Beyond this, Egypt has for years been a bulwark of stability and moderation in the region, symbolized by the Camp David accords and the peace treaty with Israel.

I am proud that the United States has recognized this invaluable Egyptian role and the urgent need for our help. Your support has sent an unequivocal signal to Egypt, to our other Arab friends, and to Saddam Hussein that the United States stands behind its allies in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Tim Wirth", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Timothy E. Wirth
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Name	Date
J. Gardner	7/10/92
Bill Otis x2607	7/24/92 Counsel (1 letter)