Dear Mr. President:

We would be most honored if you would participate in the dedication of our office on the West Coast during an upcoming western swing. After many years of exploration, we have recently purchased an office building near Century City to serve not only as our Los Angeles headquarters, but as the anchor for ADL operations in the entire Western United States. This building will serve as an important meeting place for the diverse communities that make up Southern California.

We would be honored and grateful to you if you could participate in the opening and dedication of our building at a time convenient to you within the next several months. We would, obviously, delay holding any other ceremonies at the building until such time as you could join us.

I would very much appreciate hearing from your staff as to whether your schedule permits you to join in what we hope will be a community-wide celebration of this important step of the Anti-Defamation League and the residents of Southern California.

With every best wish,
