Dear Mr. Edward and Mr. Dine:

The President asked that I respond on his behalf and thank you for your request for him to address the 31st annual policy conference on the American Israel Public Affairs Committee.

We are most appreciative of your invitation. I regret to write that the President's schedule is such that his participation on June 10 - 12 cannot be arranged. Unfortunately, with so many demands on the President's time, we often must miss some unique opportunities, as is the case this time. We had hoped that we might be able to accommodate this request, but as his calendar became more firm, things could not be worked out.

I know that the President would want me to thank you for including him in your plans and extend his best wishes to you.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH W. HAGIN II

very harsh things to say about US.
Evidently Cheney has accepted.

Dear Mr. Levy and Mr. Dine:

Thank you for your invitation for the President to address the 31st annual policy conference on the American Israel Public Affairs Committee on June 10-12, 1990 in Washington, D.C.

We appreciate your extending this opportunity to the President. Although we are unable to make a commitment at this time, we are making a special note of this date. Your invitation will be carefully reviewed as the President's schedule develops, and we will be back in touch with you closer to the time about the possibility of his acceptance.

The Honorable George Bush
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

It is with distinct honor that we invite you to address the 31st Annual Policy Conference of the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC). The Conference will be held at the Sheraton Washington Hotel in Washington, DC from June 10 to 12, 1990.

The AIPAC Policy Conference is the major annual gathering of the political leadership of America's pro-Israel community. The Conference brings to Washington over 1,200 leaders from across the country. It is the preeminent national meeting for those concerned with the U.S.-Israel relationship, as evidenced by the participation of so many of our nation's leaders. Last year over 300 Members of Congress and 50 officials from the Executive branch attended.

Mr. President, you have been instrumental in securing the close relationship between the United States and Israel and elevating this relationship to an even higher level than ever. We would be exceptionally honored if you would accept our invitation to address our Conference. We very much hope that your schedule will permit your acceptance of our invitation and, of course, we are prepared to arrange our program around your availability.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to your reply.
