Dear Mr. Moskovitz:

The President asked that I respond on his behalf and thank you for your letter inviting him to address the 1990 International Convention of the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization on August 17-20.

We are most appreciative of your thoughtful invitation. Unfortunately, with so many demands on the President's time, we often must miss some special opportunities, as is the case this time.

I know that the President would want me to thank you for your letter and for your interest in including him in your plans.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH W. HAGIN II
Deputy Assistant to the President

President George M. Bush
The White House

Dear Mr. President,

The B'nai B'rith Youth Organization (BBYO), the world's largest Jewish youth organization serving 35,000 members, would like to invite you to deliver the keynote address at our 1990 International Convention. BBYO is dedicated to community service, cultural, religious, and social programming, and leadership training for its membership. The theme of this year's Convention focuses on the youth of today being the leaders of tomorrow.

The International Convention is attended by more than 450 youth leaders, as well as key B'nai B'rith adult leadership, representing their peers from 15 different countries around the world. As President of the United States and a supporter of Jewish causes, you are very visible to our membership around the globe. This visibility is an ideal tool in motivating our young leaders, as your achievements serve as an inspiration. We would be honored to have you speak about the challenges and rewards of your political career. Like yourself, our membership is very committed to community service and helping others. As the future leaders of American Jewry we will play an instrumental role in shaping the Jewish community in the coming years. The impact you would make on us, could only be measured by the impact we could then make on the world.

We believe appropriate and acceptable arrangements can be made for you and any immediate family members you wish to bring. The convention will be held at B'nai B'rith Perlman Camp in Starlight, Pennsylvania. The dates available for the keynote address are August 17, 19, or 20, 1990. We hope one of these dates is convenient for you.

Please contact Jeff Hoffman at (202)857-6633 with any questions or concerns you wish to discuss. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Daniel J. Moskovitz
