Dear Ms. Robin:

I am responding to the letter Mr. Mitchell addressed to the President inviting him to attend the American Israel Public Affairs Committee Los Angeles Community Dinner to be held on October 4.

It is with regret that I must tell you that the heavily committed schedule to which the President is committed to for the month of October will not allow us to arrange for his attendance. I know that you will understand that because of the demands on his time he often must miss special opportunities.

The President has asked me to extend his very best wishes for the success of this event.

Sincerely,

KATHERINE L. SUPER

Honorable George Bush
United States President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Bush:

On behalf of AIPAC's Southern California Region, I am delighted to invite you to join us as our guest at our Los Angeles Community Dinner on Sunday evening, October 4, 1992. This is AIPAC's major event of the year in Los Angeles, and it will be attended by the leadership of our community -- and especially those most oriented to political affairs.

This dinner emphatically is about politics. Each of the four candidates for the United States Senate from California will be delivering remarks before dinner. After dinner, Fred Barnes, the acclaimed senior editor of the New Republic and a weekly participant in the McLaughlin Group on television, will share his insights about the political climate in the Presidential race. Honored at this dinner will be Lawrence Weinberg a beloved community leader, and himself, an extremely noted political activist and former national President of AIPAC.

This evening would be enhanced even more by your presence. We would be honored to welcome you and recognize you from the podium (although our very full program will not allow time for remarks).

I hope that you will be able to join us. Please R.S.V.P. to Ellen Robin in our Los Angeles office, 213-937-1184. Thank you in advance for giving this your consideration. I hope to see you on October 4th!

Sincerely,

J. E. M.
