I am happy to send warm greetings to the members of Argo Unit Number 5399 of B'nai B'rith as you celebrate your 125th anniversary.

Since 1864, our nation has made great progress toward eliminating sectarian hatreds and prejudices. Argo deserves to be commended for contributing so much to that achievement in the Washington area. You have shared the rich heritage of the Jewish people with your fellow Americans, and you've spoken out courageously for individual rights and greater tolerance. We are all grateful for your efforts.

Barbara joins me in congratulating each of you on this milestone. We wish you many more years of success in your outstanding work.
