Dear Mr. President:

We would very much appreciate a message from you in honor of our National Journal, prepared in conjunction with our 91st Anniversary National Dinner scheduled for May 21, 1989 at the New York Hilton in New York City. This event is a gathering of over 1200 lay and rabbinic leaders representing the North American Orthodox Jewish community nationwide.

The Orthodox Union is the umbrella organization and national spokesman of 1,700 orthodox synagogues in North America. Our activities include services for our synagogues, Public Affairs, Communal Relations, the National Conference of Synagogue Youth, special programs for the handicapped, our world famous Kashruth certification program, Publications, Books, Adult Education programs and Retreats, the Israel Center in Jerusalem - all of which are internationally recognized as being in the forefront of the movement for revival of Judaism.

This dinner celebrates the work of our youth movement, the National Conference of Synagogue Youth of NCSY. It is an outreach program annually effecting thousands of our youth, motivating them to strengthen their religious and civic loyalties, values and ideals. Over the past 30 years NCSY has been the major force in the dramatic revival of interest in and observance of orthodox Judaism among our young people.

Looking forward to the pleasure of your greeting, I am

Sincerely,

Sidney Kestel

P.S. Our Journal deadline is May 5, 1989.
