GEORGE BUSH

WASHINGTON

October 2, 1990

I am pleased to send warm greetings to the members of the Arab-American Voting Committee of Illinois as you organize your communities for a voter drive.

Our country has been built by men and women from diverse ethnic and cultural backgrounds who are united by their belief in liberty and self-government. A voter drive is a wonderful opportunity to participate in the American experience and to make a difference in how your community and country are run. I salute your effort to reach out to your friends, neighbors, and fellow citizens and to join in an American tradition that we all cherish and share.

Barbara and I send you best wishes for the future.
