Your Recommendation/Comments:

Assuming NSC clearance, I have no legal objections. Because of Mobil's very obvious self-interest in Arab-American relations, I think it might be better not to name the honorees in the message, but perhaps the SMG cover letter will take care adequately of any potential problems.

I am delighted to send greetings to all those gathered for the 1990 Awards Dinner of the Arab-American Business and Professional Association. My special greetings and congratulations to your honorees: Congresswoman Mary Rose Oakar, Mr. Hasib Sabbagh, and the members of Mobil Corporation.

The Arab-American Business and Professional Association has played an important role in creating economic opportunities for the Arab American community while fostering increased trade and other contacts between the United States and nations in the Arab world. In light of such continuing efforts, it is fitting that Association members pause to celebrate the achievements of men and women who share some of their highest goals and standards. This year's honorees have shown a strong commitment to the ideals of free enterprise and public service, and I know that Association members are grateful for their help in opening doors of opportunity for all Arab Americans. I commend their valuable contributions, and I encourage all of you to keep up the good work.

Barbara joins me in sending best wishes for a productive and enjoyable evening. God bless you.

Call Bobbie Kilberg for dispatch. She will hand-carry.

November 7, 1989

It gives me great pleasure to send my warmest greetings to everyone gathered for the Annual Award Banquet of the Arab American Business and Professional Association. I am especially pleased to add my congratulations to your honorees, John Sununu and Rafik Al-Hariri.

The Arab American Business and Professional Association plays an invaluable role in fostering greater understanding and trade between the United States and the nations of the Arab world. Your commitment to promoting peace and goodwill is reflected in the lives of those you honor this evening. Rafik Al-Hariri has justly earned the thanks of his fellow countrymen for far more than his economic contributions. His work to bring more schools and hospitals to Lebanon, to help rebuild its war torn countryside, and to resolve the conflicts that tragically divide that country has exemplified the highest standards in service to his fellow countrymen. John Sununu also has dedicated his life to helping others. Through his career in business, academia, and public service, he has worked to provide his fellow citizens with opportunities to lead full, productive lives. I am proud to have him at my side in the White House. I commend these two outstanding men and the members of the Arab American Business and Professional Association for your contributions to greater economic opportunities in the Arab American community.

Barbara joins me in wishing you a delightful evening and every future happiness.
