I am pleased to extend warm greetings to all those gathered for the 93rd Anniversary National Dinner of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America. Special greetings and congratulations to your distinguished honorees, including my good friend, Dick Cheney.

Over the years, your organization has been a source of pride, fellowship, and hope for Jewish men and women throughout America. I especially commend your efforts to help young Jews deepen their faith through the study of Judaic law and tradition. The National Conference of Synagogue Youth and the new Schottenstein Jewish Youth College reflect the strength of your commitment to moral and religious education, and they point to a bright future for the entire Orthodox Community.

Barbara joins me in sending best wishes for a wonderful anniversary dinner.

Dear Mr. President:

We would be grateful if you could send a message of greetings for our National Journal, prepared in conjunction with our 93rd Anniversary National Dinner scheduled for May 5, 1991 gathering of over 1200 lay and rabbinic leaders representing the North American Orthodox Jewish community.

Pleased to announce that our honorees will include: U.S. Secretary of Defense, Dick Cheney, recipient of the Medal of Freedom, The Schottenstein Family of Columbus, Ohio, with the inauguration of the Schottenstein Jewish Youth College; Mr. Marvin Sands, CEO of Manischewitz Wine Company, recipient of the National Kashruth Award, and Mr. Morris Nachtomi, President of Tower Air, recipient of the National Israel Award.

The Orthodox Union is the umbrella organization and national spokesman of over 1,700 Orthodox synagogues in North America. Our activities include Synagogue Service, Institute for Public Affairs, Communal Relations, the National Conference of Synagogue Youth, special programs for the handicapped, our world famous Kashruth certification program, Publications, Books, Adult Education programs and Retreats, the Israel Center in Jerusalem - all of which are internationally recognized as being in the forefront of the movement for revival of Judaism.

This dinner celebrates the work of our youth movement the National Conference of Synagogue Youth - NCSY and the inauguration of the Schottenstein Jewish Youth College.

Looking forward to the pleasure of your greeting, I am

Sincerely,

Avi Blumenfeld
