THE WHITE HOUSE

February 10, 1992

Dear Friends,

It is a great pleasure to send greetings to all attending the International Executive Board meetings of the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization.

I understand that the focus of your programs this year has been on volunteerism and helping youth. That is wonderful news. As an ardent advocate of volunteerism, I am convinced that we could not begin to meet the demands of society today without the helping hands of the volunteers who give so unselfishly of their time and resources.

It is good to know that B'nai B'rith is doing so much to set the tone for carrying on the great American tradition of reaching out and caring for others. Three cheers for all of you!

The President joins me in expressing our sincerest appreciation of what you are doing for our youth today. These young people are tomorrow's leaders and our society will be better because of your good works.

Warmly,

Barbara Bush

Dear Friends:

Your thoughtful letter to Mrs. Bush inviting her to join you is greatly appreciated.

Although the upcoming official schedule is arranged only a few weeks in advance, we would be happy to keep your kind invitation in mind as the long-range schedule is being planned. As we will not be able to respond to 1992 invitations for many months, we will be in touch with you closer to the date of your event.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Ann Brock

Dear Mrs. Bush:

"Train a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

- Proverbs, XXII

The B'nai B'rith Youth Organization is training the youth of today to be responsible adults for tomorrow. As the Presidents of this International organization, we would like to invite you to join us in training today's youth.

The B'nai B'rith Youth Organization (BBYO) is the world's largest Jewish youth group, servicing 30,000 teenagers from ages 14-18 in over 14 countries. This year we have been focusing our members' efforts on volunteerism, especially helping other youth. In conjunction with Youth Services of America, we have been actively taking part in community service projects throughout the nation.

This year we will be holding our BBYO annual executive board meetings in Washington, D.C. from February 13th to February 17th. In attendance will be the International Executive Board, and the Regional Presidents, representing all 50 states as well as our overseas districts. This is an ideal opportunity to reach youth in communities around the United States.

We were hoping that you would be available to speak to us at any time during this weekend about the benefits of volunteerism, and accompany us at a volunteer program in Washington D.C. Our schedule for the weekend is flexible for whatever is accommodating.

We can be reached at the B'nai B'rith International Office, care of Jeff Hoffman.

We look forward to hearing from you soon and hope that you will be able to influence and inspire the leaders of the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization.

Sincerely,

Jason Porth
