THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 3, 1990

Dear Jim,

Thank you for your letter.

I am pleased to hear the positive feedback from the President's recent meeting with Arab-American leaders.

Sincerely,

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu,

The President's address yesterday was impressive and his remarks quite promising.

His comments on the Gulf were a clear restatement of policy which we support. While the President eschewed any mention of linkage, I found that his passionate commitment to Lebanon and his principled approach to the Palestine issue were quite forthcoming. His words give us great hope for the future resolution of all Middle East regional conflicts.

The meeting itself, in the inclusiveness and diversity of groups represented, sent a strong signal to our community that this Administration is committed to openness and dialogue.

I thank you for making this opportunity possible for our community and ask that you convey our appreciation to the President.

Sincerely,

James J. Zogby
Executive Director
