Dear Mr. President:

Permit us, on behalf of the American Jewish Committee, to express our admiration for your eloquent address at the opening session of the historic Arab-Israeli peace talks in Madrid.

As we savor this very special moment of Arabs and Israelis gathered together around a conference table, and permit ourselves to believe that maybe, just maybe, there can be an alternative to the seemingly endless cycles of war, violence and rejectionism in this troubled region, we feel a sense of very special pride in our country's remarkable diplomatic achievement in making this moment possible.

We know how difficult the road ahead will be if true and lasting peace is to be attained, but at least now there is a beginning, and your inspiring words of yesterday surely will help propel the process forward.

With every best wish.

Respectfully,

Alfred H. Moses
President
