SUBJECT: Speech on July 14 for Mahatma Gandhi's 125th Birthday Anniversary

DATE: July 10, 1995

The First Lady is scheduled to speak on the evening of Friday, July 14 for the occasion of Mahatma Gandhi's 125th birthday anniversary. I have received a request from the DNC's Assistant Director of Party affairs and Delegate Selection, Hemal Vaidya (863-7191), asking if we can get tickets for him and his parents. The three people who need tickets are.

Krish, Aruna, and Hemal Vaidya
3419 East Northern Parkway
Baltimore, MD 21206

Since the event is Friday, it might be easier to send the tickets to the DNC so that the tickets do not get caught up in the mail.

Thanks for your assistance. Hemal and his parents have also asked me to express their appreciation.

AMBASSADOR OF INDIA
2107 MASSACHUSETTS AVE. N.W.
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20008

May 30, 1995

Dear Ms. Verveer,

The 125th Anniversary of the birth of Mahatma Gandhi is currently being commemorated around the world. The Embassy of India is organizing a major event for this purpose at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts on Friday, July 14, 1995 at 8:30 PM.

Mrs. Hillary Rodham Clinton has very kindly agreed to Address us on this occasion on Mahatma Gandhi. Her Address will be followed by the presentation of a Dance Drama, Moha Mudgar, by the Gandhi Memorial Center of Washington, D.C. We shall be greatly honored by the First Lady's presence and deeply appreciate her acceptance of our invitation to participate in this very special event.

Moha Mudgar is an adaptation of the 16-verse philosophical message of Shankaracharya, the famous eighth century Indian exponent of the ageless and Universal philosophy of Oneness. It will be a Dance Drama presented by live orchestra, vocalists and dancers. By inspiration and design it includes music, thought and participation from India and America.

As is well known, the philosophy of Advaita - Absolute Oneness - greatly influenced Mahatma Gandhi who said: "I profoundly believe in Advaita, in the essential unity of man, and for that matter, of all that lives".

We shall be very grateful if you could be present at this commemoration dedicated to the unique life and memory of Mahatma Gandhi and share in the joy, hamony and happiness of what promises to be a most special evening.

We look forward to receiving your confirmation about your attending. It will be appreciated if you could kindly respond by June 16, 1995. Complimentary tickets will be issued immediately upon the receipt of your confirmation either by telephone (Tel. No. 202/939-7010) or through fax (Fax No. 202/483-3972).

Very best wishes,

Moha Mudgar is an adaptation of the 16-verse philosophical message of Shankaracharya, the famous eighth century Indian exponent of the ageless and Universal philosophy of Oneness. It will be a Dance Drama presented by live orchestra, vocalists and dancers. By inspiration and design it includes music, thought and participation from India and America.

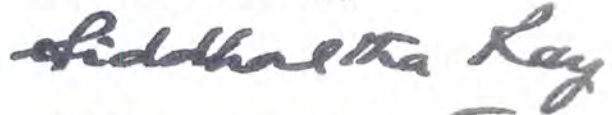

As is well known, the philosophy of Advaita - Absolute Oneness - greatly influenced Mahatma Gandhi who said: "I profoundly believe in Advaita, in the essential unity of man, and for that matter, of all that lives".

We shall be very grateful if you could be present at this commemoration dedicated to the unique life and memory of Mahatma Gandhi and share in the joy, hamony and happiness of what promises to be a most special evening.

We look forward to receiving your confirmation about your attending. It will be appreciated if you could kindly respond by June 16, 1995. Complimentary tickets will be issued immediately upon the receipt of your confirmation either by telephone (Tel. No. 202/939-7010) or through fax (Fax No. 202/483-3972).

Very best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
