Dear Norman:

On the occasion of your 75th birthday, Hillary and I want to wish you the very best. In a lifetime of achievement, many things stand out -- we'd like to thank you especially for your friendship, your example, and your generosity through the years.

I'll never forget the call you made after I lost my second run for Governor. When my career prospects were dim, you offered to help, and I'll always be grateful to you for that.

Have a wonderful celebration!

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton
