SYDNEY 2000
OLYMPIC GAMES
MASCOTS

January 4, 2000

MEMORANDUM FOR DOUG SOSNIK
 BRUCE LINDSEY
 MELANNE VERVEER

FROM: THURGOOD MARSHALL, JR.
 MICKEY IBARRA

SUBJECT: 2000 OLYMPICS AND PARALYMPICS DELEGATION

The next Olympic and Paralympic Games will be held in Sydney, Australia beginning on September 15, and ending on October 29, 2000. Although Olympics and host government officials continue to plan for the possibility that one of the four principals could head the U.S. delegation, they are increasingly eager to learn whether they will need to make the necessary logistical commitments to support a visit by a White House principal.

Though the United States is not under any obligation to inform Olympic and host government officials of its intentions at this time, planning for the possibility of a U.S. principal is increasingly problematic for the Olympic and host government planners. The contingency planning must account, for example, for a number of possible needs ranging from adequate security arrangements to logistical supports, hotel rooms, and work space. Holding several dozen hotel rooms for the period of the Games is one thing; holding several hundred rooms is quite another.

Sending a U.S. delegation of any level, however, will require a significant amount of planning and preparation, which will need to begin as soon as possible. We have been advised by the International Olympic Committee and the United States Olympic Committee that hotel rooms and event tickets are already in very short supply in Sydney for the Games period.

Since the date of the competition appears to render participation by a principal virtually impossible, we recommend that a final decision on principals' attendance at the Sydney Olympic Games be made and that the decision be communicated to the appropriate government officials here and in Australia very soon. We further suggest that planning for the U.S. delegation begin soon so that the appropriate travel arrangements, hotel accommodations, and event tickets can be secured.
