Dear Hillary,

I did not want to include this on my personal note to you but perhaps you can pass this on to the President.

I am beginning to have some concerns for the Eastern Caribbean. The leftist movement is on the rise again. With the change in government in St. Lucia and the presence of mainland China the "Grenada boys" are beginning to resurface. The Chinese are funding all their elections. The St. Lucia one and the St. Vincent one. They almost succeeded in St. Vincent - P.M. Mitchell won by one seat. Now they are going for Grenada. This is because of Taiwan's presence in the Eastern Caribbean and the Chinese are urging the leftists to dispose of the Taiwanese. The problem is that we in the Eastern Caribbean will be left with all these radical governments once the Chinese succeed and move on.

I write this because the U.S. does not need it in our front yard. I don't know the ins and outs of U.S. policy in relation to us right now - but I am worried.

Please pass this on.

With thanks,

Janice.
