RE: 9/8/83, 9 am meeting with the USIA Visitors Program

You are scheduled to meet with 37 people from the USIA Visitors Program, Wednesday morning, 9/8, at 9 am. The group has asked that you speak about what HRC views as the role of the First Lady and how she has transformed that role. Also, what is the impact of that changing role on public policy debates and American politics? The group is composed of many prominent international women.

I've scheduled to hold the meeting in room 476, which has a conference room setup. I have sent a memo to WAVES with the attendees' names and DOBs for clearance. I've also arranged for the group to have a White House tour following the meeting, at 9:45 or 10:00.

Attached are the letters from the Program Officer for your information.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Phone: (202) 456-6266
FAX: (202) 456-6244

Dear Ms. Rabner:

Thank you very much for your call confirming the appointment for this group of 29 women from around the world with Ms. Melanne Vermeer, Deputy Chief of Staff to the First Lady, to discuss how Hillary Rodham Clinton is changing the way America views the role of the First Lady. What is the impact of this changing role on public policy debates and American politics?

The group will come to the White House by 8:45 am on Wednesday, September 8th, in order to clear security and be settled in the meeting room by 9:00 am. The group will be accompanied by 8 U.S. citizens from State Department, U.S. Information Agency, and the USDA Graduate School, for a total of 37 people. I'm faxing a list of everyone's birthdates for your information.

Would it be possible to have a brief tour of the White House following the meeting? Also, as I mentioned, it would be very much appreciated if Hillary Rodham Clinton were able to stop by and greet the group. Both she and President Clinton often met with participants of the USIA International Visitor program while they were in Arkansas.

Thank you again for your attention to this request. Please let me know if I can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Carol L. Grabauskas

Dear Ms. Marshall:

I'm currently working on a program for 29 visitors from around the world who will be participating in a project titled: "The Role of Women in Social and Political Affairs in the U.S." The project is sponsored by the U.S. Information Agency, and will open in Portland, Oregon on August 16th. It will conclude here in Washington during the week of September 5-11. I'm faxing a participant list for your information.

We would like to request an appointment for the group with a representative of the Office of the First Lady on the morning of Wednesday, September 8th, to discuss how Hillary Clinton is changing the way America views the role of the First Lady. What is the impact of this changing role on public policy debates and American politics? The best time would be 9:00 am to 10:00 or 10:30 am. Would it be possible for Hillary Clinton to greet the group? — ?

Thank you very much for your attention to this request. I look forward to your response. If I am out of the office when you call, please ask for Ms. Susan Fickling, Program Officer. She can be reached at the office number listed below. Thank you.
