FROM: SAMUEL BERGER
CHARLES M. BRAIN

SUBJECT: Congressional Letter on Camp David

Purpose

Respond to a letter signed by ninety-four Members of Congress on the Camp David Summit.

Background

Ninety-four Members of Congress signed a letter thanking you for your work at Camp David. Your response notes that while we did not reach a deal, real progress was made and you will continue working for an agreement.

Representative Ackerman, who circulated the letter, also sent a personal note.

RECOMMENDATION

That you sign the responses at Tabs A and B.

Dear Gary:

Thank you so much for your kind note about Camp David. It was hard, but it was well worth it -- and it still is. We will continue trying, and it is comforting to know we can count on the support of friends like you.

Concluding the summit without an agreement was, obviously, a deep disappointment to us all. As you point out, however, it is a reason neither to despair nor to give up. Although significant gaps remain, I am convinced that real progress was made. Most importantly, both sides demonstrated that they were willing to discuss sensitive issues for the first time and to consider creative solutions. And both sides realize that we have a historic opportunity to put to rest a conflict that has plagued the region and the world for the last century.

Our goal now must be to continue to work with the Israelis and the Palestinians to try to narrow the differences and reach an agreement. As you know, I remain prepared to do whatever I can to facilitate this process. I greatly appreciate your support and words of encouragement in this regard.

Again, thank you for your letter on this important matter.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Gary L. Ackerman
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-1602
