THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

May 21, 1999

PRESIDENT CLINTON NAMES SEAN MALONEY AS ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT AND STAFF SECRETARY

President Clinton has named Sean Maloney as Assistant to the President and Staff Secretary. He served as Deputy Assistant to the President and Deputy Staff Secretary since October, 1998, and as Special Assistant to the President and Deputy Staff Secretary prior to that, beginning in July, 1997. As Staff Secretary, Mr. Maloney is responsible for clearing all written material going to and from the Oval Office, including all presidential briefing and decision memos, executive orders, directives and legislation.

"Sean Maloney has done an outstanding job of managing the flow of information to and from my desk and providing important counsel," President Clinton said. "He is a valued member of my senior staff in a critically important job. I am confident that he will continue to serve with distinction as Staff Secretary."

Mr. Maloney began working for then Governor Clinton during the 1992 presidential primaries and worked on the 1992 Democratic Convention in New York City, and later at the Clinton/Gore campaign headquarters in Little Rock, Arkansas. Following the 1992 campaign, Maloney joined the law firm of Willkie Farr & Gallagher in New York, where he specialized in institutional and criminal investigations.

Mr. Maloney earned his B.A. in International Relations from the University of Virginia in 1988, and received a J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law in 1992, where he was the Managing Editor of the Virginia Journal of International Law. From June, 1988, to June 1989, he was a volunteer social worker in rural Peru, where he focused on community development programs.

Mr. Maloney and his partner, Randy Florke, have a 9-year-old son.

Subject: Executive Order: Increasing Opportunities for Women-Owned
Small Business

Office of the Press Secretary

For

May 23, 2000

EXECUTIVE ORDER

INCREASING OPPORTUNITIES FOR WOMEN-OWNED SMALL BUSINESSES

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including the Small Business Act, 15 U.S.C. 631, et seq., section 7106 of the Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act of 1994 (Public Law 103-355), and the Office of Federal Procurement Policy, 41 U.S.C. 403, et seq., and in order to strengthen the executive branch's commitment to increased opportunities for women-owned small businesses, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Executive Branch Policy. In order to reaffirm and strengthen the statutory policy contained in the Small Business Act, 15 U.S.C. 644(g)(1), it shall be the policy of the executive branch to take the steps necessary to meet or exceed the 5 percent Government-wide goal for participation in procurement by women-owned small businesses (WOSBs). Further, the executive branch shall implement this policy by establishing a participation goal for WOSBs of not less than 5 percent of the total value of all prime contract awards for each fiscal year and of not less than 5 percent of the total value of all subcontract awards for each fiscal year.

Sec. 2. Responsibilities of Federal Departments and Agencies.

Each department and agency (hereafter referred to collectively as "agency") that has procurement authority shall develop a long-term comprehensive strategy to expand opportunities for WOSBs. Where feasible and consistent with the effective and efficient performance of its mission, each agency shall establish a goal of achieving a participation rate for WOSBs of not less than 5 percent of the total value of all prime contract awards for each fiscal year and of not less than 5 percent of the total value of all subcontract awards for each fiscal year. The agency's plans shall include, where appropriate, methods and programs as set forth in section 4 of this order.

Sec. 3. Responsibilities of the Small Business Administration.

The Small Business Administration (SBA) shall establish an Assistant Administrator for Women's Procurement within the SBA's Office of Government Contracting. This officer shall be responsible for:

- (a) working with each agency to develop and implement policies to achieve the participation goals for WOSBs for the executive branch and individual agencies;
- (b) advising agencies on how to implement strategies that will increase the participation of WOSBs in Federal procurement;

- (c) evaluating, on a semiannual basis, using the Federal Procurement Data System (FPDS), the achievement of prime and subcontract goals and actual prime and subcontract awards to WOSBs for each agency;
- (d) preparing a report, which shall be submitted by the Administrator of the SBA to the President, through the Interagency Committee on Women's Business Enterprise and the Office of Federal Procurement Policy (OFPP), on findings based on the FPDS, regarding prime contracts and subcontracts awarded to WOSBs;
- (e) making recommendations and working with Federal agencies to expand participation rates for WOSBs, with a particular emphasis on agencies in which the participation rate for these businesses is less than 5 percent;
- (f) providing a program of training and development seminars and conferences to instruct women on how to participate in the SBA's 8(a) program, the Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) program, the HUBZone program, and other small business contracting programs for which they may be eligible;
- (g) developing and implementing a single uniform Federal Government-wide website, which provides links to other websites within the Federal system concerning acquisition, small businesses, and women-owned businesses, and which provides current procurement information for WOSBs and other small businesses;

(h) developing an interactive electronic commerce database that allows small businesses to register their businesses and capabilities as potential contractors for Federal agencies, and enables contracting officers to identify and locate potential contractors; and

(i) working with existing women-owned business organizations, State and local governments, and others in order to promote the sharing of information and the development of more uniform State and local standards for WOSBs that reduce the burden on these firms in competing for procurement opportunities.

Sec. 4. Other Responsibilities of Federal Agencies. To the extent permitted by law, each Federal agency shall work with the SBA to ensure maximum participation of WOSBs in the procurement process by taking the following steps:

(a) designating a senior acquisition official who will work with the SBA to identify and promote contracting opportunities for WOSBs;

(b) requiring contracting officers, to the maximum extent practicable, to include WOSBs in competitive acquisitions;

(c) prescribing procedures to ensure that acquisition planners, to the maximum extent practicable, structure acquisitions to facilitate competition by and among small businesses, HUBZone small businesses, SDBs, and WOSBs, and providing guidance on structuring acquisitions, including, but not limited to, those expected to result in multiple award contracts, in order to facilitate competition by and among these groups;

(d) implementing mentor-protégé programs, which include women-owned small business firms; and

(e) offering industry-wide as well as industry-specific outreach, training, and technical assistance programs for WOSBs including, where appropriate, the use of Government acquisitions forecasts, in order to assist WOSBs in developing their products, skills, business planning practices, and marketing techniques.

Sec. 5. Subcontracting Plans. The head of each Federal agency, or designated representative, shall work closely with the SBA, OFPP, and others to develop procedures to increase compliance by prime contractors with subcontracting plans proposed under section 8(d) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 637(d)) or section 834 of Public Law 101-189, as amended (15 U.S.C. 637 note), including subcontracting plans involving WOSBs.

Sec. 6. Action Plans. If a Federal agency fails to meet its annual goals in expanding contract opportunities for WOSBs, it shall work with the SBA to develop an action plan to increase the likelihood that participation goals will be met or exceeded in future years.

Sec. 7. Compliance. Independent agencies are requested to comply with the provisions of this order.

Sec. 8. Consultation and Advice. In developing the long-term comprehensive strategies required by section 2 of this order, Federal agencies shall consult with, and seek information and advice from, State and local governments, WOSBs, other private-sector partners, and other experts.

Sec. 9. Judicial Review. This order is for internal management purposes for the Federal Government. It does not create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or equity by a party against the United States, its agencies, its officers, its employees, or any other person.

Dear Sean,

I have finally been cleared to start, and tomorrow will be my first day in action. I want to thank you for all of your help and support thus far, and wanted to thank you in advance in case you are too busy tomorrow or I don't see you. When I met you in October I never thought I would have the opportunity to work with you, and I am so excited. I am looking forward to a great summer, and I am ready to work very hard.

Sincerely,

Adam S. Bazelon

and other subjects near and dear to the hearts of these funders) appear to be fueling anti-environmental judicial activism. We document that the most activist, anti-environmental opinions in four critical areas of environmental law have all been written by judges that have attended anti-environmental seminars. Most of the judges attended numerous seminars, sometimes while a pertinent case was before the court, and many times ruling in favor of a litigant backed by the same special interests that sponsored the judge's seminar. In one case, a judge ruled one way in a very high-profile case, attended a seminar and, upon his return, switched his vote to agree with his newly acquired "education."

I have pasted below a draft of the Introduction to the report. The full report runs about 100 pages and draws on our review of every judge's financial disclosure form for each of the last seven years. Former DC Circuit Judge and White House Counsel Abner Mikva is writing a Foreword.

The report is still in draft form and the intro must be kept confidential, but I thought some folks over there might be interest in reviewing a draft and, perhaps, helping push for reforms to end these trips. Let me know what you think. Doug

Hi. Jesse Jackson (the Rev., not Junior) sent a letter to the President recently concerning Fannie Mae (and, in particular, the hard time that he perceives Treasury to be giving Fannie Mae). We'll work with Sarah Rosen-Wartell on the response, but I just wanted to give you a heads up. Should you, by any chance, see a response come over the transom that doesn't appear to have been cleared with us, I'd be grateful for a heads up. Thanks.

TEXT:

thanks for your email; let's try to talk today; if we miss each other,

maybe justin and carol can help out in my absence next week; i'll be here on june 2 for my last day - - let's shoot for mid-june; looks like the week of the 12th might be best at this point; or the following week. It'd be a huge help to get a working date at this point. I've spoken to the President, Nancy and Capricia; everyone's been great - - Capricia told me to get my guest list together, and she'd see what makes sense - - we spoke about something in the early evening for 50-60 people in the blue room or yellow oval. With respect to the first lady, i've mentioned it in passing to huma and capricia, but it's completely their call, and who knows what her schedule will be like; obviously, i'd love to have her there if there's a way it works schedule-wise.

I got your voice mail, but when I tried to call back at the number Carol gave me, your friends said you had already left. Anyway, I just wanted to let you know that the Hale House people had asked us to Fed Ex the message about a week and a half ago to their printer, so it's gone. However, I've attached the text so that you can see what it says.

May 24, 2000

Warm greetings to everyone gathered in New York for the 2000 Hale House Dinner celebrating the 30th anniversary of Hale House. I am delighted to join you in congratulating this year's distinguished honorees: Her Royal Highness the Princess Margarita of Romania and His Serene Highness Prince Radu of Hohenzollern-Veringen; Rob Davis, Glen Dailey, and Stephan Vermut of Hedge Funds Care; Al Roker; and my good friend David Mixner.

It is a very American idea that we meet our challenges not through big government or as isolated individuals, but as members of a true community, with all of us working together. Upholding this fine tradition, Lorraine Hale, the late Mother Hale, and the staff, volunteers, and supporters of Hale House have given hope and help to thousands of babies and young children over the past 30 years. Reaching out with loving arms to children born with addictions, infected with HIV, or abandoned by their families, you have devoted your time, talents, and energy to give these young ones a second chance for health and happiness. And through your programs to help troubled young people and to assist mothers seeking to overcome drug addiction or disease, you are making a positive difference to many lives in the New York community.

I thank you for what you do each day to fulfill America's bright promise for all our people. You have rightly earned the trust and abiding gratitude of the many children and families you have served through the years. Hillary joins me in extending best wishes for a memorable anniversary celebration and for continued success in your work.

Subject: White House Fellows

I'm writing to give you a heads-up about our once-a-year need to have the President sign-off on something that is time-sensitive. On Sunday June 4, the President's Commission on White House Fellowships will select the 2000-2001 Class of White House Fellows and on Monday, June 5 I will present that recommendation to you for the President to approve. As you know from last year, we are locked into a terrific time crunch the longer we have to wait for approval -- a time situation over which we have little control but which has a snowball effect on the appointments schedules of the entire Cabinet and their staffs. I know the President is traveling until June 7 (is that correct?). Can you answer the following questions:

1. Is there any way to get POTUS to sign off on the 5th or 6th, while he's away?
2. If not, is there any way you can assure me that our decision memo will get to him on the 7th (or whatever his first day back is) reasonably near the top of the pile?

I thank you in advance for anything you can do to help with this situation. If you need to call me my direct line is 5-7474. I'm not on the EOP email system: jblumenthal@whf.gov

i'd wait for melanne on the MOF meeting; i'd probably have our folks work with beth to write the foreword for the book; on bills, i usually announced most signings, though sometimes it was general ("we're going to have to have him do some uncontroversial bills today, we'll send around an email; people should contact me if they're interested"); glad to here adam's there and justin distinguished himself abroad; you should send yourself on the next big trip; it'd be good experience for adam to run the office and fun for you
-- on the home front, we're in construction on the house and will be for a couple months yet; so for now we're all crammed in the world's smallest 2 bedroom apartment in the village; but the kid's going away for 8 weeks this summer and randy'll be upstate a lot, so we'll manage. so, give me some white house gossip; what's the latest?

will do; thanks. yes, Adam is here, finally (!); the government bureaucracy is enough to kill you. He was here a few days last week and officially started yesterday, and I'm looking forward to getting him up to speed. I think he'll be great; he and Justin are doing the book; Justin did a great job on the trip, including 2 signings, one in the Kremlin (don't know if you caught him on CNN). We've had our share of crazy moments, mostly related to late incoming executive memos/orders, NEC letters that absolutely must get done, etc. The usual. MOH and MOF are in good shape, although melanne is out of the country for 2 weeks and am trying to figure out whether to have meeting #2 w/o her, if she oks. Actually, while I have you, i have 2 other questions:

- 1) On the request via Beth Nolan for the President to do a forward for a book on women lawyers (Meredith Cabe ok'd and POTUS wants to do), who should I have write this? Speechwriting, I assume. Do we have precedent for something like this? Is it something our guys could do? Any thoughts?
- 2) A silly question on bills -- We have 8 mostly small bills pending, and I just sent around an email with due dates and names to give people a chance to schedule a photo/event if they want. What was your rule of thumb about announcing these at the sr. staff meeting. Did you announce (or email) about ALL bills? Only big ones or ones that sound like someone might have an interest? I'd be interested to know how you handled this too. Thanks! (you've opened a pandora's box, but I think that should do it for now. please say hello to Randy and Jesus from me. Have you already moved to the new place?)

you're correct about the agent orange matter; nancy was out of the office when we talked it over with mara and i just wanted to keep her in the loop; but, i confess, i forgot to mention it to her after she got back. I'd tell nsc to go ahead and just give nancy a heads up on what's going on. as for my life: things are going well here, but it's a total blur; still way down on the learning curve -- how are things with you; up to speed? has adam started? how's it going?

you thought you were done with us... remember adm zumwalt, Ned Powell (VA), and Agent Orange? I don't know if you remember where we were on this, but when I followed up with Mara recently on what had happened, she said NSC was ready to go (to meet with them) but was waiting for word from you -- she thought that you were going to do something first. I said all that I recalled, vaguely, was that you were maybe going to mention to Nancy that this was how we'd propose handling this: i.e., that NSC would do a meeting with those concerned to explain our policy, rather than having the President get back involved. Am I remembering this correctly? If that was the plan, did you talk to Nancy? Can I tell NSC to go ahead? I appreciate any dusty memories you might have...

More important, how's it going? How's life in the fabulous private sector?
Would love to hear how your doing, if you have a minute between power-lunching and corporate jetting...

Good Morning - Scheduling is still carrying your party as tentative for July 7 on the block schedule. I talked to Laura Graham this morning and she is going to get back to me, hopefully later today, to let me know if the date is a confirmed date and also a time on that date.

Hope you are doing well. Talk to you soon.

I think that Hugh O'Brian gets confused very easily. Aimee has been doing quite a bit of work on this. Mr. O' Brian called me last night and said that nothing was set up and that the Visitor's office knew nothing about the tour. No true. Aimee told Mr. O'Brian that he should to a letter to Melinda Bates telling her how much they enjoyed the tour last year and giving her the dates for this year. He was to cc Aimee and Margaret Whillock. He called me last night and said that Aimee needed the letter he sent you in March. I have just called him again and left a detailed message as to what he has to do.

He also keeps pushing for lunch at the White House and meeting with the principals. I keep telling him no on the lunch and I have pretty much told him the same as far as a meeting with the principals goes.

Any suggestions on how to handle?

Carol
