NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20504

July 26, 2000

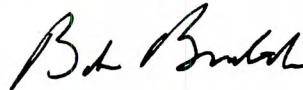

Dear Mike:

On behalf of the "Camp David team" from the NSC, I wanted to thank you and your staff for your extraordinary efforts during the Middle East Peace Summit.

In our first conversations, I had tried to warn you about the burden the Summit would place upon you and all of those working at Camp David, but even I did not realize just how much we would ask. Throughout the long days and nights at Camp David, the support you and your staff provided the negotiators from all three sides enabled them to concentrate totally on the difficult diplomatic and political challenges they faced. While we were not able to reach the agreement we had hoped for, the negotiations were unprecedented in addressing the most sensitive issues in the Middle East Peace Process. The unique setting of Camp David was an essential element in making such discussions possible.

I know that all of this was not achieved without a great deal of hard work and sacrifice by all those serving at Camp David and their families. Please extend the NSC's profound thanks to them for a job well done.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Bradtke
