It was agreed that:

- OMB will work with State and NSC to determine how to meet FY99 funding requirements for Kosovo. (Action: OMB) (U)
- The USG should proceed with the strategy described in the State Department paper with two exceptions: (1) (b)(1) [001a]
(b)(1)
(b)(1) (2) the USG should not take steps to interfere with Kosovo Liberation Army (KLA) funding until there is a fuller assessment of the probable effectiveness. (Action: State) (S)
- Ambassador Hill should continue with his proposed approach to negotiating an interim political settlement, although progress should be reviewed on a regular basis. (Action: State) (S)
- Pressure should be increased on Belgrade to bring its security forces into compliance with the Clark-Naumann agreement and to cooperate with the OSCE's Kosovo Verification Mission (KVM) in creating positive change on the ground. This should be done by profiling Belgrade's non-compliance and non-cooperation and taking steps within NATO to maintain the credibility of its Activation Order. (Action: State) (S)
- The USG and OSCE's Kosovo Verification Mission (KVM) should move forward quickly with creating positive change on the ground through training local police, preparing for local elections and implementing community development projects. (Action: State) (S)
- The USG should send a clear message to the KLA that further provocations or breaches of the cease-fire will not lead to NATO intervention but to international condemnation and sanction. (Action: State) (S)
- The USG should adapt its public line to condemn more forcefully acts of violence by the KLA and its role in provoking violence, while still acknowledging that Milosevic bears primary responsibility for the crisis in Kosovo. (Action: State) (S)
- The feasibility and effectiveness of interfering with KLA funding should be fully assessed. (Action: NSC) (S)

It was agreed that:

- OMB will work with State and NSC to determine how to meet FY99 funding requirements for Kosovo. (Action: OMB) (U)
- The USG should proceed with the strategy described in the State Department paper with two exceptions: (1) (b)(1)
(b)(1) and (2) the USG should not take steps to interfere with Kosovo Liberation Army (KLA) funding until there is a fuller assessment of the probable effectiveness. (Action: State) (S)
- Ambassador Hill should continue with his proposed approach to negotiating an interim political settlement, although progress should be reviewed on a regular basis. (Action: State) (S)
- Pressure should be increased on Belgrade to bring its security forces into compliance with the Clark-Naumann agreement and to cooperate with the OSCE's Kosovo Verification Mission (KVM) in creating positive change on the ground. This should be done by profiling Belgrade's non-compliance and non-cooperation and taking steps within NATO to maintain the credibility of its Activation Order. (Action: State) (S)
- The USG and OSCE's Kosovo Verification Mission (KVM) should move forward quickly with creating positive change on the ground through training local police, preparing for local elections and implementing community development projects. (Action: State) (S)
- The USG should send a clear message to the KLA that further provocations or breaches of the cease-fire will not lead to NATO intervention but to international condemnation and sanction. (Action: State) (S)
- The USG should adapt its public line to condemn more forcefully acts of violence by the KLA and its role in provoking violence, while still acknowledging that Milosevic bears primary responsibility for the crisis in Kosovo. (Action: State) (S)
- The feasibility and effectiveness of interfering with KLA funding should be fully assessed. (Action: NSC) (S)
