Dear Ms. Hurd:

We appreciate your 14 February 1996 letter inviting Harold Ickes to speak at the 1996 ACORN Legislative Conference. Although I am certain Mr. Ickes would enjoy speaking to your organization, due to his busy schedule that week and previously scheduled travel, we are not able to accept.

I will forward your invitation to the White House Office of Political Affairs to see if there is an appropriate surrogate to speak at your conference and ask them to call you directly.

Thank you again for your invitation.

Sincerely,

Janice Enright
Special Assistant to the
Deputy Chief of Staff

Dear Mr. Ickes:

I am writing to invite you to address the 1996 ACORN Legislative Conference, which will be held from March 3-6 in Washington DC. This event will bring together over 100 neighborhood leaders from around the nation to meet with policy makers and elected representatives. We hope that you might be able to speak on the evening of Tuesday, March 5 or the morning of Wednesday, March 6. In the event that neither of these days proves convenient, we would be pleased to schedule another time during the week.

As the country grapples with the issue of the government's place in society, this dialogue is crucial. We hope that you will come and discuss with us our plans for voter registration and how they fit in your scheme for the upcoming election cycle.

We look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience. Please contact Bernard Fulton or Lisa Donner at (202) 547-2500.

Sincerely,

Maude Hurd
