Art works reflect the ideas and customs of their times. Politics can be a shaping factor of inspiration. This concept also applies to our contemporary period. The departure of American troops from Berlin, for instance, inspired Jenny Leuttner and Corinna Richard to replicate the Statue of Liberty. "Corinna and I have chosen to rebuild the Statue of Liberty because it is a sign of friendship between two people and is a symbol of international cultural understanding. It is symbolic of the American culture we have come to appreciate in Germany."
