Dear Colleague:

We are pleased to send you the 1998 Women's Foreign Policy Group Membership Directory. The Directory is one of the best ways in which we foster appreciation of women's contributions and promote the visibility of women in the international affairs field. Each year the Directory grows larger, reflecting both the increasing numbers of women in the field and the impressive growth in WFPG membership.

WFPG has expanded its program calendar in Washington, New York, and other locations. The impact of the programs is clear - high caliber speakers, strong participants and lively discussions. Our calendar for 1998 includes two exciting new programs "Voices of Women on Japan" and "Peace, Conflict Resolution and Civil Society." The popular Ambassador series and Newsmaker Forums will also continue in 1998.

WFPG also supports leadership development by offering members opportunities to promote women's voices in the media, op-ed pages and foreign affairs publications. I was pleased at the response to a recent op-ed I wrote and will be happy to share a copy with anyone who has not received it.

We look forward to seeing you at upcoming meetings.

Sincerely,

Patricia Ellis
Executive Director
