THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 27, 2000

Ms. Maude Hurd
President
Association of Community
Organizations for Reform Now
88 Third Avenue
Brooklyn, New York 11217

Dear Ms. Hurd:

Thank you for your invitation for the President to attend the Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now's National Leadership Reception on March 10-14, 2001 in Washington, DC.

At this time, the White House is unable to make commitments for requests that occur after January 20, 2001. Please know your invitation will be kept on file and you will be contacted as more information becomes available regarding the President's post-presidency schedule.

Once again, thank you for your thoughtful invitation.

Sincerely,

The Honorable William Jefferson Clinton
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington DC 20500

Dear President Clinton:

We are writing to invite you to be the guest of honor at ACORN's National Leadership Reception, to be held in connection with ACORN's National Legislative and Political Conference, scheduled for March 10-14, 2001, in Washington DC.

The Reception will honor your many years of fighting so that, in the words of both the Arkansas state and ACORN motto, "The People Shall Rule".

ACORN leaders from around the country will be present at this event, and we are hoping we will have an opportunity to demonstrate our appreciation for what your Administration has accomplished over the past eight years.

We know that your schedule will likely be almost as full next year as it is now, so we are holding open the evenings of March 10, 11, 12, and 13 as possible dates for this Reception.

Please have your staff contact Zach Polett, ACORN Political Director, for more information about this event:

ACORN
2101 S. Main Street
Little Rock, AR 72206
501-376-6451

We hope to see you in March.

Sincerely,

Maude Hurd
President, ACORN
