NATIONAL FINANCE CHAIRMAN

Dear John Sample:

I'm pleased to present you with the enclosed videotape compliments of President Clinton and Vice President Gore.

As one of the President's most distinguished supporters, you've been selected to receive this one-of-a-kind retrospective of the President's first term in office.

And because you have shown such strong support for the President's re-election effort, I'm sure you'll be interested to know about another way you can help the Clinton/Gore '96 Campaign.

The General Election Legal and Accounting Compliance (GELAC) Fund is an unusual title for a common campaign expense. GELAC funds help pay attorneys' and accountants' fees to ensure that we are meeting the stringent standards required by law.

By making a special contribution to the Clinton/Gore '96 GELAC Fund, you can help the campaign comply with federal election law -- and preserve general campaign funds for our day-to-day work directly with voters.

So won't you make a special donation to the Clinton/Gore '96 GELAC Fund today?

On behalf of the President and Vice President, thank you again for your commitment to the 1996 campaign.

Sincerely,

Terry McAuliffe
National Finance Chairman

P.S. I've enclosed a brochure which explains the GELAC Fund in greater detail and provides a contribution form for you to complete and return with your contribution. A reply envelope is also included for your convenience.

Contribute to the Clinton/Gore '96 General Election Legal and Accounting Compliance (GELAC) Fund.

Many years ago, presidential campaigns spent almost all of their funds on advertising and organization.

But today, to comply with rigorous federal election laws, every presidential campaign spends substantial sums on legal and accounting services.

Fortunately, these legal and financial expenses need not take money away from the primary work of the campaign.

Even if you've already given the maximum amount to the Clinton/Gore '96 Primary Committee, you are eligible to contribute up to $1,000 to the Clinton/Gore General Election Legal and Accounting Compliance Fund (GELAC). Your GELAC Fund contribution ensures that regular contributions are spent to reach voters, and that we do not have to spend vital campaign dollars on lawyers and accountants.

So if you want to do all you can to help the President win in 1996, please make a special contribution to the Clinton/Gore '96 GELAC Fund today.
