MEMORANDUM TO GEORGE STEPHENOPOULOS

FROM: Andrew E. Barrer, Ph.D.
Office of the National AIDS Policy Coordinator

SUBJECT: David Mixner

Andrew

Last weekend I saw David speak to a gathering of about 650 gay men and lesbians at an important conference in Miami Beach, Florida. David's major theme was that we have come a long way, and we could not have done so without the help and support of the President and the First Lady. Whenever David commented about the President or Mrs. Clinton, the crowd erupted in loud ovation.

I believe that this was a good indication that we are making progress with the gay and lesbian community. I also feel good that David is doing his share to get our message out there in a very positive way.

I felt that I should bring this to your personal attention. If you would like further detail, please call me at 632-1215.

Thank you.

To: President Clinton
