Dear Mr. President,

I have probably sent more correspondence to you than I have any other political official in my lifetime, but I am determined to be an encouragement to you and am in support of your nomination to place Dr. Henry W. Foster, Jr. on your cabinet as our new Surgeon General.

It amazes me that many, who are leaders, fail to remember some mistakes that they may have made in life. In most cases they are probably hoping that no one will expose them or that hopefully amnesia has set in.

We all have done something which I am sure we wish had never crossed our minds as well as become active in our world of reality. We are thankful to God that He gives us an opportunity to be forgiven and to repent. Some of our dignitaries in Washington have evidently become so quick to sign up for a membership in the stone throwing club, that they have neglected to ensure that they are without sin.

Dr. Henry Foster is a credit to America with his outstanding medical record and his impeccable character in the community of life. To deny him the opportunity to serve his country and be the health conscience of America is a disservice to all who are in need of his sensitivity, honesty and concern.

My prayer is that those who would seek to destroy his character would awaken and realize the significance of having a man of his integrity, who has made some regretful decisions of which he is sorry, but who will serve his country and its people well.

You have my prayers and support in your choice, and I believe it is a sound decision.

Sincerely,

I believe that he will be an asset to your administration and a positive force in the area of health care and awareness to our country. His credentials are impeccable and he brings a sensitivity to the office that is needed so that the concerns of many might be addressed.

Please do not let the voices of a chosen few be the determining factor on whether or not Dr. Foster will assume this position of vocal authority. We need more individuals of his professional calibre and charisma to lead us to a higher level of health consciousness.

May God bless and keep you in His eternal care and I pray that He will continue to lead you as you lead our country.
