HEADLINE: ELLEN GOODMAN;
IS HILLARY SELLING OUT?

BYLINE: BY ELLEN GOODMAN, GLOBE STAFF

BODY:

... Simon & Schuster, the child of Viacom, praying for when the publishers anted up some 8 million bucks for the memoirs of Hillary Rodham Clinton? A marketing miracle? Or access to the new senator's ear as well as her voice?

All week, as a watchdog group called for a Senate ethical investigation, the question has been whether Hillary, the first of the Clinton couple to nail down the big book bucks, was renting out her "intellectual property," hawking her history, or just plain selling out.

The speculation in the chatty, catty book biz had focused on the publishers who tried to figure out whether Mrs. Clinton would tell all before they paid all. As one insider said in blunt New Yorkese, "Imagine having tea poured into the ...
