HEADLINE: 'Travelgate': No charges against Hillary Clinton
Prosecutor claims 'substantial evidence' of her role

SOURCE: New York Times

BODY:

... D.C. - The independent counsel investigating the White House "Travelgate" case said Thursday he would seek no criminal charges against Hillary Rodham Clinton in the firing of seven White House employees in 1993. But the prosecutor, Robert Ray, maintained there was substantial evidence she ...

... Lazio says he will need "a ton of dough" - at least $ 15 million - to run his Senate campaign against Hillary Rodham Clinton.

Appearing Tuesday on Don Imus' nationally syndicated morning talk show, the congressman from Long Island said, "We're going to need a lot of money. ... It's a ton of dough."

Through March 31, Mrs. Clinton had raised more than $ 12 million for the Senate race while her Republican opponent at the time, Mayor Rudolph Giuliani, had ...

Lazio praised the Senate for passing anti-bias crime legislation, which his Democratic opponent, Hillary Rodham Clinton, previously backed. The Senate approved the measure last week, after balking at it for 11 years in ...

CORRECTION:

A story June 13 did not fully detail Rep. Rick Lazio's statements regarding Medicaid coverage for disabled people who want to go back to work without losing their benefits. Lazio said he wanted the state to adopt the program but understood the financial considerations Senate Majority Leader Joseph Bruno cited in explaining why the program was not enacted this year. (pg.
