... proud graduate of Chaminade High School. When asked about his support for Clinton, Suozzi replied very carefully: "I believe, as Mrs. Clinton does, that abortion should be safe and legal, but that it should be more rare and we need to support programs such as homes for single mothers, better adoption and foster-care programs, and more education that you should not be having sex unless you are prepared to have a child."

Interestingly, we have never heard Hillary Clinton or any other pro- choice politician explain why abortion needs to be more rare. The only reason to make it rare would be if one had scruples about the unborn child. We submit that Hillary Clinton has no such scruples.
