Jewish leaders weigh in on slur allegation

The Anti-Defamation League on Monday defended Hillary Rodham Clinton against allegations that she used an anti-Semitic slur 26 years ago, and Mrs. Clinton portrayed herself as the victim of a "warehouse of insults" from the Republican Party.

Conservative Jewish leaders, meanwhile, held a news conference Monday outside Mrs. Clinton's campaign office to criticize her. And her Republican opponent for the Senate, Rep. Rick Lazio, said it's up to the voters to decide what to think.

The ADL said it takes Mrs. Clinton's word that the accusation is false. "Her public record shows no evidence of anti-Semitism, and we do not believe her to hold negative views ...
